

California State University, Sacramento Police Department

Crime Alert Bulletin 05-03

Posted July 20, 2005

Midtown Robbery Series

The department wishes to alert the campus community about a series of five robberies that occurred in the midtown area of Sacramento in June and July 2005. In all of the cases, the crimes occurred in the afternoon and at night in the area of 17th and K, 27th and O, 14th and Q, and 24th and R, and 24th and K Streets.

The victims, all women, were approached by a male suspect said to be in his 40's., 5-10, and 200 lbs. The suspect pointed a gun at his victims and told them to hand over their jewelry and purses.

The series ended with the apprehension of two men, 33 and 41 years of age, on July 9, after a robbery behind a business at 24th and K Streets. The primary suspect has been charged with multiple counts of robbery and possession of stolen property.

The department would like to remind the campus community to be aware of their surroundings at all times in public and to use caution. Brochures with personal safety tips are available free of charge at our 24 hour front counter in the Public Services Building. You can reach us at (916) 278-6851 or by e-mail at police@csus.edu.