Assault Near Residence Halls

On Monday, September 12, 2005 at about 3 p.m., a male resident of the residence halls was walking to the main portion of campus when he was struck in the face with a textbook by a male adult passerby. The suspect was in the presence of two other male adults walking towards the residence halls. The incident occurred on the main pedestrian walkway just north of State University Drive East. The victim was struck without provocation and received substantial physical damage to his face.

The department wishes to alert the campus community and is asking for any information to help identify the suspects. Persons with information can contact the department's 24-hour number at (916) 278-6851, or send an e-mail to police@csus.edu. Persons with information may remain anonymous.
