On Saturday September 09, 2006 at approximately 2:54 am an Assault occurred in Desmond Hall just inside of the south Lobby entrance. The victim had a silver handgun pointed at him by a male adult, possibly Caucasian, and he was then punched and struck on his face and back of his head by three, or four male adults, possibly Hispanics, who were accompanying the male with the handgun. The male with the handgun may have struck the victim with the weapon. The suspects were in an older Ford Mustang that was either blue, or gray with California license plates.

The suspects then left the Residence Hall area. It is unknown if any of the suspects are students or residents.

Attached is a composite police sketch of the subject who had the gun. He is described as possibly a Caucasian male adult about 20-21 years old, 6' tall, 160-165 lbs, thin build, and light brown blondish spiky hair, clean shaven with acne, with a white shirt, blue jeans, and gray or black tennis shoes.
