Over the past several months, unknown persons claiming to be students from Sacramento State have gone door-to-door in the local community asking for money. The solicitors told residents that they were majoring in Communication Studies at Sacramento State and needed money for a "school trip overseas."

The solicitors are not authorized to collect money on behalf of the university and may be committing fraud. If you or someone you know has been solicited by anyone door-to-door in the above scenario, please report the incident to your local law enforcement agency.
