JUSTIFICATION:

To supply the overwhelming demand of a second semester conversational Arabic class. For those students who took 2A in the Fall. One semester of Arabic will not give enough conversation skills. The demand is high nowadays in students who have the basics ( 3 semesters of grammar and sentence structure) but are looking to work in translation and foreign affairs in which 2B is a minimum. There are lots of jobs out there looking for people fluent in Arabic, but not enough people who can fill it.
Note: We are the only campus in the region offering Arabic so the enrollment is guaranteed.

- 2- Cd to accompany "Al Kitaab" level one
- 3- Any college level Arabic/English, English/Arabic Dictionary

Catalog Description:

Continuation of ARBC002A with an ongoing emphasis on communication skills and rudiments of literacy, as well as continued integration of cultural and social components with the language learning experience. Prerequisite: ARBC001B or instructor's permission. 4 units

Students Learning Objective Outcomes:

Arabic 2B is a continuation of Arabic 2A with reading, writing, listening and speaking. Arabic culture and it's relationship to language are given continued attention. We will be covering chapters 13 through 20 and finish the book this semester. This is the class you have been waiting for to get to a higher level conversation course. Specific standards have been established in content, context, function and accuracy through competencies for each class. These are available in the college catalog and in the schedule of classes.

Method of instruction:

Emphasis is placed on acquiring proficiency on comprehension, speaking, reading and writing within cultural context. To accomplish this we will utilize communication based on activities, cooperative learning techniques and regular daily lab assignments which will focus on conversation.

The Arabic language program chosen for this 2B class uses a communicative, Proficiency-oriented approach with fully integrated visual media to teach modern standard Arabic as a living language.

In addition refining skills attained first semester Arabic conversation 2A, class requirements will be dedicated to the analysis of the many different aspects of the Arabic culture.

Good news. If you took 2A last semester you do not need to purchase the textbook "Al Kitaab" since we will be finishing it in 2B.

Student Requirement:

- 1- Be prepared: Have all class materials brought to class along with any assigned work. This includes having read all assigned materials so that each student may participate in the class discussion. You should plan to spend about 10 hours of preparation per week outside of class. Even a single unprepared student can slow the pace of the entire class.
- 2- Attendance: Attend each class and lab! I cannot stress this enough. An established pattern of more than 3 absences will lower your grade. Continued excessive absences may result in being dropped from the class. Leaving class without being excused will be considered an absence. Arrive on time as not to be a distraction for others.
- 3- Assignments: Beyond reading and writing assignments from the text, students will complete written and oral exercises in the workbook. Additional writing is required as part of the semester project. You will also have various oral reports to be presented in class. A college 4-unit class is a heavy unit class. Take it seriously!
- 4- Language Lab: Course unit and credit are established in part by the assignments and time that is invested in the Lab. Please note that two hours per week are required in the lab for this class. In the lab we will be doing a series of activities that are not in the textbook. It is an opportunity to expand speaking and listening skills.
- 5- Be polite and have fun! Pretty self-explanatory, but this includes common courtesy toward instructor and classmates. Most of us will be a little nervous here. Patience and acceptance on everyone's part helps tremendously.
- 6- Tests: There will be a chapter test on every chapter. Tests will include listening comprehension, vocabulary, reading, writing, and grammar within context. Only one test may be made up during the semester due to an absence on the day of the test, ( I still need to be notified by email or voice mail before the test the student stating the reason for his or her absence)

Special needs: If you need any special accommodations for this class, please be sure to let me know.

Evaluation:

- 1- Chapter tests: (30%) These are an average of one-hour length exams that reflect the material covered for each chapter. I will return your exams as quickly as possible. Due to the schedule of the course there are no make up exams so if you have a conflict please contact me prior to the exam. One low exam grade may be excused from the tally toward the semester average.
- 2- Final Exam:( 30%)
- 3- Class participation: (15%) Attendance and participation is vital in learning a language. It is the opportunity to use what students read and study in the textbook. It is also in class that ideas are shared and cultural concepts are discussed.
- 4- Homework/Lab work (15%) A series of different assignments plus different oral and written exercises from the workbook. Lab attendance and work are required for all students.
- 5- Oral Presentations: ( 10%) The students will have to make 2 oral presentations during the semester.
- 6- Grades: Passing grades are A to C. A grade of a D will earn units for the class but will prohibit a student from continuing on to the next level.
- 7- Scale: 100%-A+ 90%-A 80%-B 70%-C 60%-D
