This course replaces experimental course Subject Area (prefix) and Catalog Nbr (course number):

Change from:

| | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Subject Area (prefix) & Catalog Nbr (course no.): ART3 | Title: Art in the Asian World | Units: 3 |
|--|--------------------------------------|-----------------|

Change to:

| | | |
|--|---|-----------------|
| Subject Area (prefix) & Catalog Nbr (course no.): ART 3B | Title: Modern and Contemporary Asian Art | Units: 3 |
|--|---|-----------------|

JUSTIFICATION:

ART 3 has been the only lower-division course in Asian art and culture at Sacramento State for the past 4 years. Given the extreme geographic and chronological range encompassed by this course (ten different countries and many centuries), the material would be better served, and the students' learning experience enhanced, by dividing ART 3 into two separate courses, ART 3A and 3B. For ART 3A, see the separate proposal. ART 3B will cover Asian art and culture from the Modern period to the contemporary.

NEW COURSE DESCRIPTION: (Not to exceed 80 words, and language should conform to catalog copy. See <http://www.csus.edu/acaf/univmanual/crspsl.htm> - Guidelines for Catalog Course Description)

Covers the art and architecture of Asia from the modern period to the present day. Attention will be given to the impact of outside influences upon the development of art in several Asian countries, including India, Thailand, Vietnam, Indonesia, Philippines, China, Korea, and Japan. Contacts between these countries, their exposure to western visual culture through new or increased contact with the west, and the spread of Christianity all had an impact on Asian art during the period under consideration.

Description of the Expected Learning Outcomes: Describe outcomes using the following format: "Students will be able to: 1), 2), etc." See the example at <http://www.csus.edu/acaf/example.htm>

Upon successful completion of ART 3B, students will:

- Be able to identify singular and regional features of Asian art from the modern through contemporary periods
- Be familiar with important modern and contemporary art and architecture in each Asian country studied.
- Have the terminology appropriate for the discussion of modern and contemporary Asian art.

*Attach a list of the required/recommended course readings and activities [Note: it is understood that these are updated and modified as needed by the instructor(s).] This attachment should be forwarded only to your Dean's office, not Academic Affairs.

Assessment Strategies: A description of the assessment strategies (e.g., portfolios, examinations, performances, pre- and post-tests, conferences with students, student papers) which will be used by the instructor to determine the extent to which students have achieved the learning outcomes noted above:

1. Four exams, each worth 25% of the final grade
2. Class participation: Attendance will be used as an independent variable applied after other grades have been averaged. Specifically 4 unexcused absences will result in one full grade reduction.

The exams will consist of slide identification and short essays. The slide identification should include the title or name of the object, the name of the artist (if known), and the specific period or culture represented. Essays will require discussion of the significant art historical features and their relationships to aesthetic issues.

ART3B (MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ASIAN ART)
Spring 2008
California State University, Sacramento

Professor: Pat Chirapravati

Office: Kadema room 186, Phone: 916-278-3880

Office hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays 9.30-11.15 a.m. (and by appointment)

E-mail: pchirapravati@csus.edu

Instructor's website: <http://www.csus.edu/indiv/c/chirapravati/index.htm>

Course website: <http://www.csus.edu/indiv/c/chirapravati/ART3>

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

ART 3B covers the art and architecture of Asia from the modern period to the present day. Attention will be given to the impact of outside influences upon the development of art in several Asian countries, including India, Thailand, Vietnam, Indonesia, Philippines, China, Korea, and Japan. Contacts between these countries, their exposure to western visual culture through new or increased contact with the west, and the spread of Christianity all had an impact on Asian art during the period under consideration.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of ART 3B, students will:

- Be able to identify singular and regional features of Modern and Contemporary Asian art including Asian American art.
- Be familiar with important modern and contemporary art and architecture.
- Acquire a terminology appropriate in the discussion of Asian art.

GRADING:

This course counts for 3 units and is letter graded. Regular participation in class is of the utmost importance and attendance will be taken. There will be four exams, each worth 25% of the final grade. The exams will consist of slide identification and short essays. The slide identification should include the title or name of the object, the name of the artist (if known), and the specific period or culture represented. Essays will require discussion of the significant art historical features and their relationships to aesthetic issues. Students can write reviews of videos for extra credit (please speak to the instructor).

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Attendance will be used as an independent variable applied after other grades have been averaged. Specifically 4 unexcused absences will result in one full grade reduction.

EXAMS:

Exams will be based on information from both lectures and readings. A slide review, scheduled before each exam, will cover the 40-50 (approximately) works of art that a student is expected to know for the test. All of the digital images shown in class will be posted on the instructor's website for individual review on a regular basis.

GRADING RUBRIC FOR EXAMS:

- A: Exemplary: The slide identifications are almost error-free and the essays address all of the issues set forth in the instructions, showing a mastery of the material covered in the lectures and assignments.
- B: Superior. The slide identifications have very few errors and the essays address most of the issues set forth in the instructions. It is clear that the student has mastered most of the material covered in the lectures and assignments.
- C: Satisfactory: The slide identifications may have some errors but the basic recognition of most of the material is adequate. Essays do not address all aspects of the question and show some misunderstanding of the material. However, the student seems to have grasped many of the essential issues.
- D: Unsatisfactory: The slide identifications are seriously flawed. The student was unable to arrive at even an approximate recognition of several of the works of art.
- F: Failure: There is little evidence that the student can recognize the works of art or discuss the critical issues associated with them.

MAKE-UP EXAM POLICY:

Make-up exams will be given only under special circumstances. If a student knows in advance that he or she has a serious conflict with a scheduled exam, it is his or her responsibility to discuss the situation with the instructor as soon as possible. If an illness or unexpected emergency prevents a student from coming to the exam, the student should contact the instructor within 24 hours of the day on which the exam was held.

Required text:

Fred S. Kleiner and Chrisin J. Mamiya, Gardner's Art Through the Ages: Asian Perspectives (Custom Edition prepared exclusively for California State University, Sacramento) (Belmont: Thompson and Wadsworth, 2007).

Reading assignments are from the textbook and the list on the web site. Each lecture has an assignment listed in the class schedule. Students should make sure to read it before class. Some books will be put on reserve at the library. Students are advised to read all assignments in the texts for each week, keeping up with the related lecture topics.
