JUSTIFICATION:

This is a name change for an elective course in our department's degree program that is suitable for majors in several of the emphasis areas. The new name reflects the department's new name. The current course description is corrected to give a more accurate description of the content of the course.

NEW COURSE DESCRIPTION: (Not to exceed 80 words, and language should conform to catalog copy. See http://www.csus.edu/acaf/univmanual/crpspl.htm - Guidelines for Catalog Course Description)

Focuses on principles and practices involved in recreation and park facility planning and design, with emphasis on master planning, design standards and criteria, and effective use of natural resources. Design theories and concepts are explored in relation to architecture and urban planning, and the position of recreation facilities within the overall urban plan is emphasized. Examines principles and practices relating to development and implementation of a maintenance and operation plan for recreation, park and tourism facilities.
