Change to:

| Subject Area (prefix) & Catalog No. (course no.): DNCE 160 | Title: Creative Dance for Children | Units: 3 |

COURSE GOALS/ TEACHING METHODOLOGY
The goal of this class is to introduce students to the field of creative movement and how it works in the world of teaching. Embedded in this process are the following: movement exploration; lesson planning; practice teaching; reflection, revision, and feedback. This works toward actual teaching in the community. Attention will be paid to the development of skills applicable to varying settings and populations. Students will gain knowledge and expertise in teaching through observations, class discussions, journal-keeping and practical experiences. Self-evaluation, peer evaluation, and teacher evaluation will provide on-going feedback. This course will explore how creative movement/dance is used in the community and school systems, the latter fundamentally tied to the Content Standards for California Public Schools. This course offers the opportunity for students to discover the role of dance in education and to gain valuable hands on teaching experience.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
1. To explore and discover the essence of creative movement.
2. To provide and techniques in teaching and motivating students toward creativity.
3. To cultivate and develop skills in creating effective lesson plans.
4. To cultivate skills for expanding and revising effective lessons.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
1. Lesson Plans: (30 Points) Each teaching/lesson will necessitate a clear, comprehensive lesson plan. Lesson plans will be developed and perfected throughout the semester. Copies of all lesson plans must be distributed (via email) to the entire class. See Sample Lesson Plan Format. Further details on lesson plan requirements will be distributed throughout the semester.

Lesson Plan #1: Creative Movement – 10 pts.
Lesson Plan #2: Creative Movement & Curriculum – 10 pts.
Lesson Plan #3: Community Creative Movement – 10 pts.
2. Teachings: (30 Points) Each student will engage in the teaching of three creative dance lessons. The first two lessons will be taught on fellow students in the class and will serve to prepare students for the largest and final lesson. The third lesson will be taught on students in the schools/community. Details on each of the teaching assignments will be distributed throughout the semester.

Teaching #1: Creative Movement - 10 pts.
Teaching #2: Creative Movement & Curriculum – 10 pts.

Therefore, a major goal of the class will be to strengthen feedback skills that serve the teachers. Students will be graded on feedback (both written and oral) as well as overall participation, attitude and energy in all classes, movement assignments and written assignments, and class discussions. Students will show a 3-ring binder at mid-term and at the end of the semester, of all lesson plans, notes, handouts, etc.- that will serve as a resource later on.
