

New Workshop for Faculty

“Preparing Accessible Instructional Materials”

Featuring guest speaker Brett Christie, Ph.D., School of Education and Center for Teaching and Professional Development, Sonoma State University.

Thursday, April 9, 2009

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Library Room 11 (Lower Level)

Join us to learn more about:

- Accessible Technology Initiative Requirements,
- New Course Requirements,
- Universal Design Concepts for Teaching and Learning,
- New Instructional Materials Accessibility Checklist,
- Quick Tips to create accessible Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Adobe PDF instructional materials,
- Accessibility Training and Express Help Workshops,
- Instructional Materials Resources and Services for Faculty,
- Share and discuss with faculty peers about accessibility.

If you will be attending please RSVP by email at cvera@csus.edu or call 278-2847.

Pizza and Beverages will be provided!

This workshop is presented by the Center for Teaching and Learning, Academic Technology and Creative Services, Information Resources and Technology, and Services to Students with Disabilities.

Individuals needing reasonable accommodations for disability access should email cvera@csus.edu or call 278-2847 at least 5 business days before the workshop.