Brian Royal: Hey everybody, I’m Brian Royal - also known as the grandpa of tours, which is pretty chill considering I’ve been here quite a while! I’m a junior here at Sac State and a Criminal Justice major with a minor in Computer Science. On the side, I love playing rugby for our school. I also enjoy surfing and wakeboarding, which is ironic since I never learned how to swim! My favorite thing about Sac State is how beautiful our campus is with all of the trees and student art that fill it.

Jacob Gonzalez: What’s up everyone. I’m Jacob Gonzalez. I’m currently a sophomore at Sac State studying Criminal Justice so I can become a CHP officer. This is my third semester as a tour guide and my second semester in my fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha. At tours I am known for my deep, distinct radio voice. For a jump start in my field, I also work alongside the California Highway Patrol. My favorite aspect of Sac State is the location because it is close to so much – the mall, downtown, the river, and Old Sac.

Anabel Urbina: Hello! My name is Anabel Urbina. I’m a senior at Sac State double majoring in Government and Spanish. This is my second semester as a tour guide and I love meeting such diverse, interesting people through tours. My favorite thing about Sac State has to be the seemingly endless activities and clubs to participate in. I also really enjoy Snapple facts! Did you know the Statue of Liberty has seven points on her crown - one for each continent? Thank you Peach Snapples. YUM.
Liz Cardenas: Hey, I'm Liz Cardenas and I'm a junior at Sac State. My major is FACS (Family and Consumer Sciences) with a concentration in Nutrition and although I love it, it's never stopped me from enjoying a bag of tootsie rolls to myself on occasion! In my life, every month that isn't December is only a countdown to what really matters – Christmas time! I have been a tour guide for two semesters, focusing on K-8 outreach. My favorite thing about Sac State is most definitely the diversity of our student body and the positive atmosphere.

Bri Young: Hey there, my name is Bri Young and I am a junior here at Sac State. My major is Psychology and I am hoping to minor in Human Resources! Despite my mom's worries, it's my dream to work as a psychologist in prisons. I'm involved in both the Honors Program as well as a sorority on campus, and this will be my second semester as a tour guide. My favorite thing about Sac State is a tie between the diversity and all the opportunities to get involved! My favorite thing in life though, is Disney. Obsessed!

Diane Strain: Hi! My name is Diane Strain and I am currently a senior here at Sac State. I'll be graduating this May with my degree in Child Development and a minor in Counseling Education. I've worked in all sorts of jobs around campus, always helping students the best I can. My favorite thing about Sac State has to be the trees. I adore watching them change colors through the fall. If I've learned anything about this beautiful campus over the years, it's all of the best places for a nap! I also know where all of the printers and microwaves are, of course.

Jahi Vaughns: Hello everybody, Jahi Vaughns is my name and Public Relations is my game. I'm a junior here at Sacramento State and this is my second semester as a tour guide. If you couldn't guess from my major and my job, I love working with people and I'm especially good with kids. My favorite thing about Sac State is definitely all the awesome students. You might not guess it now but when I was little I was in the Rose Parade, and in 1942 my grandmother immigrated here from Germany!
Kadina Koonce: Hakuna Matata everyone, I’m Kadina! This year I’m a junior at Sacramento State with a major in Geography and a minor in Geology, which if you ask me totally rocks! This is my third semester as a tour guide and as a geography major I’m sure we won’t get lost! Some fun facts about me include my love of rollerblading and that I hold leadership positions in three organizations. My favorite thing about Sac State is how alive the city is with tons of events not only on campus but throughout the Sacramento area, whether it’s a color run, a concert, or holiday festivities!

Katie Thompson: Hiya, I’m Katie Thompson! I am a senior at Sac State majoring in Speech Pathology & Audiology. After graduation, my next accomplishment will be going to graduate school for Recreation Therapy! This is my second semester as a tour guide, and it my favorite job thus far. My favorite thing about Sac State is the diversity and the strong support system of services and resources. Some of my passions are cheeseburgers, music, zombies, and social justice. I’m known for my enthusiasm and quirkiness, so I hope you’re ready to laugh with me!

Kyla Taylor: Hi there, my name is Kyla Taylor and this semester I am a graduating senior with a major in Ethnic Studies! This is my fourth semester as a tour guide, so I’m definitely ready to show you what we’re all about. My favorite things about Sac State are all the amazing trees and squirrel friends you’ll find all over campus! It’s fitting, since my spirit animal happens to be a squirrel. Not surprisingly, I’m also a vegetarian. I also enjoy the many events and organizations there are to be a part of here.

Maria Vigil: Hello, my name is Maria Vigil and I am a senior at Sacramento State. My major is Child Development and I’m also working towards a minor in Spanish. I have been a tour guide for one semester and a member of Sigma Lambda Gamma going on five semesters! I have a few favorite things about our campus, such as our diversity, Greek life, and all of the resources offered. The way to earn my friendship is watching movies with me and using proper English over text!
Riley Ashen: Hey everyone, I’m Riley Ashen and I am a sophomore at Sac State majoring in Recreation, Parks, & Tourism Administration with a minor in Marketing. I was on our NCAA Division 1 Rowing team for three semesters before I decided to join the club volleyball team for this upcoming semester. This will be my second semester as a tour guide and if I had to choose my number one favorite thing about Sac State it would definitely be the trees…all 3,500 of them!

Ali Barbato: Well hello there, I’m Ali Barbato and you’ll know if you see me on campus because I will probably be wearing a cute skirt and unique earrings! My major is Government and I am a junior here at Sacramento State in the Honors Program. I’ve been in love with our campus since day one, which is why I’m excited to continue into my second semester as a tour guide. My favorite things about Sac State are the trees and the people. If you catch me in my spare time, you’ll most likely find me knitting and looking forward to Halloween!
