Dear [First Name],

The English Directed Self-Placement Program is a requirement for many freshmen admitted for Fall 2014. Participation in the Directed Self-Placement Program is based on your English Placement Test (EPT) score. First-time freshmen who score 146 or less on their EPT must complete the Directed Self-Placement Program.

Our records indicate that based on your English Placement Test score, you are required to participate in the English Directed Self-Placement Program. Completion is required prior to attending your New Student Orientation this summer. If you gave not already completed the program, you MUST complete it no later than June 25, 2014.

The English Directed Self-Placement Program consists of a series of activities completed online that will assist you in determining an appropriate English writing course for Fall 2014. The activities can be completed in a few short hours, resulting in a recommendation for your placement and allowing you the opportunity to select from alternative courses as well.
