Dear {#First Name#},

The Housing and Residential Life Office congratulates you on being admitted to Sacramento State for the 2015-2016 academic year!

Living and dining on campus is convenient, and economical. It offers a variety of support services to assist in your transition to Sac State. With easy access to classes, the library, campus activities, sporting events, availability of internet access in each room, and the question becomes..."Why not live on campus or at the Upper Eastside Lofts?"

Benefits include:

- Furnished units— (all utilities included)
- High speed internet and Wi-Fi access and computer lab/print stations located in all residence halls
- Recreation and study areas available within halls
- Full time live-in professional staff, resident and program advisors
- Electronic access system on all outside entry doors
- Video cameras throughout the complex, and police satellite office on-site
- Swimming Pools and Lighted Tennis and Basketball Courts
- Hornet Cinema - FREE movies each month (on-campus only)
- Hornet Philo – Live TV and DVR broadcasted online (on-campus only)
- TV services (offers 120+ channels) and includes Comedy Central, HGTV, Discovery Channel, MTV, Food Network, Bay Sports Channel, and many more...
- Variety of Food and Dining Options: The Dining Commons offers “All You Care To Eat” meal and service program, which includes “to order” selections from the grill, a soup and deli station, exhibition station, theme meals, and carved-to-order meat selections. The Courtyard Market Serves Fresh Baked Goods, Deli Sandwiches and Fresh Baked Pizza as well as Coffees and Smoothies. These are just a few of the things you will experience while living on campus or at the Upper Eastside Lofts.
