From Death to Life in Ancient Bahrain

MARCH 3 – MAY 8, 2015

Exhibit Hours: Tuesday-Friday Noon- 3pm
(Closed March 24-27 for Spring Break)
Sacramento State’s Anthropology Museum
(Located on first floor of Mendocino Hall)

Opening Symposium: Face to Face with Early Dilmun
March 6, 1:00-3:30 p.m.
California Suite (University Union)
Reception to follow in the Anthropology Museum

For more information: www.csus.edu/anth/museum
Map and directions online: www.csus.edu/Map

Sponsored by: California State University, Sacramento Retirees Association and Boutin Jones Inc.

Facial reconstruction by Gloria Nusse.
Exhibit developed through a partnership between the Sonoma State University, The University of California, Berkeley, and the Phoebe A. Hearst Museum of Anthropology.

This card serves as your Sacramento State Parking Permit for Opening Symposium and Reception. Valid March 6, Noon-5:30 pm in student spaces. Place on driver’s side of dashboard facing out.