Association of Pacific Coast Geographers
AFRICAN DESCENT STUDENT TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIPS
2012

The APCG offers travel grants to attend the APCG Annual Meeting in Olympia WA, 3-6 October: $200 for current Geography students who attend the meeting; $300 for current Geography students who attend and present papers or posters. The application deadline is Friday 31 August 2012.

The APCG African Descent Scholarship Program was created in 2009 to provide travel grants for Geography students of African descent to assist them with financial support to attend APCG annual meetings. To date, awards have been presented to:
2009 – Reginald Archer (UC, Santa Barbara) and Brittany Davis (University of Arizona)
2010 – Brittany Davis (University of Arizona)
2011 – Crystal English (Cal State, Northridge)

Application requires two steps:
1) A statement from the student, noting her/his specialization within Geography, ethnic background, commitment to attend the Olympia meeting, and, if presenting a paper or poster, the topic;
2) A supporting letter of reference from a faculty member.

Please e-mail the student statement and the faculty support letter to:
• Professor James W. Harrington (University of Washington, Tacoma): jwh@uw.edu
• Professor Aribioloa S. Omolayo (Cal State, Fresno): samuelo@csufresno.edu
• John and Bev Passerello (UCLA & San Jose State U., retired): johnbev81@yahoo.com

This is also an appeal to those of you who would like to donate funds to provide an opportunity for Geography students of African descent to attend APCG annual meetings. Funds may be sent to: Robert Richardson, APCG/Geography, CSU Sacramento, 6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819-6003. Please make check payable to “APCG” and indicate "ADSTS" on the memo line of the check.

James W. Harrington (committee chair)
University of Washington, Tacoma
jwh@uw.edu