Gina Curry named associate vice president for Financial Services

The Division of Administration and Business Affairs is pleased to announce that Gina Curry has been appointed associate vice president for Financial Services, effective today. Since March 2015, she has excelled in the position in an interim capacity. Prior to the interim appointment, she was director of the Student Financial Services Center (now the Bursar's Office). Thank you to the campus community for participating in the search process during the open forums and for providing important feedback regarding the candidates.

Please join ABA as we congratulate Gina on her official appointment.

Farewell celebration for Dean Edward S. Inch is July 11

Dean Edward S. Inch of the College of Arts and Letters is leaving Sacramento State to become provost and vice president at CSU East Bay. During his five years as dean, he has fostered a spirit of community, creativity, and success among the faculty, staff, and students, and has built lasting bridges to the Sacramento community. He leaves us well positioned for continued success. Please join us for a farewell celebration from 4 to 6 p.m. Monday, July 11, at the Les and Anita Harper Alumni Center to wish him the very best in his new endeavor.

Kindly RSVP by Tuesday, July 5, and direct any questions to al-rsvp@csus.edu. We look forward to seeing you.

If you are unable to attend, a memory book is available for signing in the Arts and Letters Dean's Office, Mariposa Hall 5000. If you have any photos to share, please send them to al-rsvp@csus.edu.

Security tip: Should I click on security pop-ups?

You are on the Internet reviewing a website when a pop-up appears on your screen, informing you that your computer has been infected with spyware. It instructs you to click on the popup to download anti-spyware software. Should you do it? No.

Spyware sometimes poses as anti-spyware software. That sort of pop-up may link to software that does not actually eliminate spyware – or even infects your computer with spyware. Instead, alert the Information Security Office about the pop-up message, as it's often an indication of an infection on your computer. For more information, contact the Information Security Office. You will find contact information on its webpage at www.csus.edu/irt/is.
