California State University, Sacramento
New Student Orientation 2015
F.R.O.S.H Night Agreement

By accepting admission into Sacramento State, you have joined our community. As a Sacramento State Student, you agree to adhere to the Policies of the University and of the residence halls. Please note that not all policies are outlined in this sheet, however, you are still expected to adhere to all such policies which can be found at http://www.csus.edu/umanual/student.html.

I further authorize the University to obtain necessary medical treatment for me and I hereby give permission for transportation to any medical facility or hospital. I authorize any qualified instructor, orientation staff, or medical personnel to render necessary emergency medical care for me. I acknowledge that I am financial responsible for any medical treatment required.

FROSH Night Expectations

- F.R.O.S.H Night is a Sacramento State event and University rules must be followed.
- Only students participating in F.R.O.S.H Night are allowed at this event. Visitors and overnight guests are not permitted.
- Part of the orientation experience is staying in the residence hall with other new students. As a participant of F.R.O.S.H Night, you have to be present for the entire session. NO LEAVING CAMPUS UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, UNLESS PART OF THE F.R.O.S.H NIGHT PROGRAM.
- After returning from the events, you are expected to stay in the residence halls all night.
- If you become ill, please notify an Orientation Leader or other staff member immediately.
- If you lose your key to the residence hall, you will be charged $30 for lost keys or keys not returned at check out.
- Orientation leaders are on duty all night in the residence halls.
- In an event of an emergency, contact an Orientation Leader On Duty immediately.

University Expectations

- Sacramento State prohibits individuals under the age of 21 to purchase, consume, transport, possess, or sell alcoholic beverages. In addition, no student of any age is allowed to possess alcohol on campus while attending orientation including participating at F.R.O.S.H Night. The use, sale, or possession of illegal drugs is prohibited on campus. Residence hall staff will notify police in situations involving drugs. There is a zero tolerance for anyone who violates this policy.

  This means NO alcohol, NO drugs. If such a violation occurs the repercussions will be immediate and severe.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above conditions of this Agreement and that I, intending to be legally bound, do agree to abide by them. I understand that if I violate this Agreement, disciplinary action may be taken that could affect my status as a student of Sacramento State. Photos and videos may be taken during your FROSH Night experience. By signing this document I authorize and release the use of any photographic or video recorded image for any purpose of the participant listed below.
