

Center for California Studies

2017 Visiting Scholar Presentation

Catalysts for Change: Addressing Social Determinants of Health in California

Thursday, June 22nd
10:30 am - 1:00 pm
Tsakopoulos Library Galleria,
Breakout Room A, 828 I street

California has long been characterized by a willingness to innovate and re-imagine possibilities. Join us as our 2017 Visiting Scholar, Dr. Rich Callahan, shares his research on how leadership at health foundations in our state are addressing health disparities by investing in placed based change and the implications for California state government. This free event will consist of a presentation by Dr. Callahan and a panel discussion with health policy and government experts to engage in this topic.

Please register by June 14, 2017

Lunch will be provided

Additional information: <http://www.csus.edu/calst> or call 916-278-6906

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SACRAMENTO