

U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Federal Career Intern Program Fact Sheet Grades GS-5/7 Target Audience: Undergraduate Level

Our mission is to increase homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination.

The Federal Career Internship at HUD is a two-year comprehensive career development program. FCIs are expected to contribute their professional expertise and gain technical knowledge to strengthen the overall HUD core mission and operations.

Eligibility Requirements:

- U.S. citizenship is required.
- Requires successful completion of a two-year formal training and development internship to be eligible for conversion to permanent employment.
- You do not have to be a student to be eligible for this program .

Pay and Benefits:

- Appointed at GS-05 or 07 grade levels. Your level of entrance will depend on your previous education and work experience. Salaries start at $27,026 at GS-5 level, and $33,477 at the GS-7 level. Interns will also receive locality pay to make the salary competitive with local markets. The amount varies according to employment location.
- Promotion potential to GS-12 within 2 years (salary for the GS-12 is currently $59,383)
- Sick and Annual Leave
- Health and Life Insurance
- Retirement Coverage
- May be eligible for transit subsidy

FCI Program Features:

- A two-year training and developmental program that consists of rotations, training, mentoring and other developmental opportunities.
- 80 hours of training per year.
- Rotational assignments.
- A formal HUD orientation session.
- The opportunity to apply professional and technical skills.
- Professional development and advancement.
- A chance to serve the community and answer the Call to Public Service.

Applications must be submitted online by 5/15/09.

Use this link to apply and type in VIN #256427
<https://applicationmanager.gov>

Interns will be expected to start work around July 6, 2009.