

The California Reading & Literature Project at CSU Sacramento invites you to join us this summer for a variety of workshops for teachers. CRLP focuses on helping teachers effect classroom change in concert with state guidelines. These workshops will provide busy teachers with in-depth professional development on a variety of urgent issues for elementary teachers. Each workshop will offer participants:

- Research-based, effective instructional practices
- Standards-based methods designed to raise student achievement
- Sample planning tools and lessons
- Access to additional resources

All workshops are open to classroom teachers, administrators, and resource personnel. Register early! Enrollment is limited for each institute and will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

To register: Please complete the registration form at the end of this brochure and enclose a check, money order, or purchase order payable to California Reading & Literature Project. To guarantee your attendance, please pay by June 10, 2009.

Units: Continuing Education Units will be available for a fee of $50.00 per workshop. One-day workshops are eligible for .7 CEUs and two-day workshops are eligible for 1.4 CEUs. Registration will be available at each workshop. Payment is due upon registering for units.
