

Materials related to Charles M. Goethe

Prepared by Alexandra Minna Stern

Books and Pamphlets

Charles M. Goethe, The Elfin Forest (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1946).

_____, Garden Philosopher (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1955)

_____, Geogardening (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1948).

_____, Mother Lode Gold Mining Stories, Natural History Series No. 1. (Sacramento: Sacramento State College Publications, 1950).

_____, Seeking to Serve (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1949).

_____, Sierran Cabin . . . From Skyscraper: A Tale of the Sierran Piedmont (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1943).

_____, War Profits . . . and Better Babies (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1946).

_____, What Will Your Greatgrandchildren Face? (Sacramento, nd).

_____, What's in A Name (Sacramento: Keystone Press, 1949).

Eugenics Society of Northern California (pamphlets) – largest and most complete set is available through the University of Minnesota Library, probably donated by Goethe to the Dight Institute at some point.

Archives

California

Institute Archives, California Institute of Technology

Papers of Ezra S. Gosney and the Human Betterment Foundation

*Material related to Goethe's participation in the HBF

Commonwealth Club of California (private collection)

Note: since accessioned to the Hoover Institute, Stanford University

*Material detailing how Goethe helped to found the Eugenics Section of the CCC

Save-the-Redwoods League Archives, San Francisco

Memorial Grove Files

*Material demonstrating Goethe's donations to and involvement in the S-R-L memorial groves.

Special Collections, Stanford University

Papers of David Starr Jordan

*Papers related to their friendship and California eugenics.

Papers of Lewis M. Terman

*Papers related to their friendship, California eugenics, and intelligence testing.

Hoover Institute, Stanford University

Papers of David Starr Jordan

*Correspondence detailing how Jordan and Goethe first met on a train in Japan in 1911.

Bancroft Library, University of California at Berkeley

Papers of Samuel J. Holmes

*Letters related to the establishment of the CCC Eugenics Section.

Papers of the Save-the-Redwoods League

*I suspect there are relevant Goethe materials in this collection although I have not consulted it systemically.

Regional Oral History Office (ROHO)

Newton Bishop Drury

*Includes discussion of importance of Goethe to American environmentalism.

Harold C. Bryant and Newton B. Drury

*Includes discussion of importance of Goethe to American environmentalism

Charles M. Goethe

East Coast

Archives, American Philosophical Society Library, Philadelphia

Papers of the American Eugenics Society

*Correspondence related to California eugenics.

Papers of Charles B. Davenport

*Correspondence related to California eugenics.

Other Sites

Special Collections, Truman State University, Kirksville, Missouri

Papers of Harry H. Laughlin

*Correspondence related to Laughlin and Goethe's anti-Mexican immigration campaigns.