CSU Fully Online Courses offered through Cross-Campus Enrollment

On-Line Course Offerings throughout the CSU

Fall 2015

There are hundreds of semester courses from across the CSU system that are being offered on-line through the CSU Fully On-Line Course Offerings via Cross-Campus Enrollment. Current and Continuing students who meet eligibility criteria: In good academic standing; Have completed at least 12 units at Sacramento State; and who have paid tuition and fees as a full-time student at Sacramento State for Fall 2015 are eligible to enroll in one CSU on-line course per term. You may only enroll in semester-based campus courses. You may not enroll in courses that are quarter-system based.

For detailed information about the program and courses offered, go to the Cal State link: www.calstate.edu/concurrent. Once your eligibility is confirmed, you can search the Schedule of Online Classes for Fall 2015. The Online course list provides course information regarding General Education Tags and from which campus the course is offered. You should also consult with your academic advisor to determine how the course may apply to your degree requirements.

Please Note: As some campuses begin earlier than August 31, check on the start dates at each of the campuses at the Registrar’s website, click on the ONLINE COURSES FALL 2015 icon, http://www.csus.edu/registrar/Online_Courses/index.html The Start Date/Classes Begin and the Enrollment Dates are presented for each campus.

Once you determine in which class you may be interested, go to your Student Center, Academics - left column and Click on the Enroll in CourseMatch link and follow the step by step process. You may not enroll in one of these courses after the enrollment date at the campus the course is offered.
