Course Description

This course is designed to provide students with an overview of child welfare services from an historical, theoretical and practice perspective. Services to children and their families are divided into:

- support services or those which enhance family life,
- supplemental services that help the struggling family to maintain or regain balance and
- Substitute services or those that provide for the child when the family cannot on either a temporary or permanent basis.

Each service is considered from the point of view of:

- etiology,
- rationale of the services,
- the provision of the services,
- how the consumer views the service and
- The trend that may affect the future provision of the service.

Services are also discussed in the light of their provision to a variety of diverse populations.
Textbook & Course Materials

Required Text

Recommended Texts & Other Readings
- Other readings will be made available in the SacCT
- Course Requirements
- Internet connection (DSL, LAN, or cable connection desirable)
- Access to SacCT

Written work for this class
- Clear and concise writing are key ingredients for your future in the field of social work or any profession you will enter.
- All writing assignments shall be typed, double-spaced and have one-inch margins. Font (typeface) size shall be 12 points.
- All papers should include a cover page with your name, name of assignment, instructors’ name, course name and date.
- No late papers will be accepted unless there are extraordinary circumstances and/or prior approval has been given by the instructor. Always keep a copy of each assignment you submit to the instructor

Plagiarism-
Plagiarism is the use of distinctive ideas or works belonging to another person without providing adequate acknowledgement of that person's contribution.

Acknowledgement is not necessary when the material used is common knowledge. When the source is not noted, the following would constitute plagiarism:

1. Word-for-word copying.
2. The mosaic (to intersperse a few words of one's own here and there while, in essence, copying another's work).
3. The paraphrase (the rewriting of another's work, yet still using the fundamental idea or theory).
4. Fabrication (inventing or counterfeiting sources).
5. Ghost-written material (submitting another's effort as one's own).

It is also plagiarism to neglect quotation marks on material that is otherwise acknowledged. Plagiarism and acts associated with it are cause for disciplinary and/or legal action.

If it is determined that a student has plagiarized the work of another, it can result in the student being suspended or expelled from the University, depending on the circumstances. In this course a grade of (F) can be expected by students who plagiarize

Course Structure

This course will be delivered partially online through the course management system SacCT. You will use your Saclink account to login to the course from the SacCT login page (http://online.csus.edu).

In SacCT, you will access online lessons, course materials, and resources. At designated times throughout the semester; we will participate in a blend of self-paced and group-paced activities using SacCT and alternative Internet-based technologies. Activities will consist of chat, blogs, discussion forums, email, journaling, blogging, wikis, and web posting.

SacCT Access

This course will be delivered partially online through a course management system named SacCT.

To access this course on SacCT you will need access to the Internet and a supported Web browser (Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari). To ensure that you are using a supported browser and have required plug-ins please run the Check Browser from your SacCT course. Refer to the SacCT Browser Tune-up page for instructions.

(Voice) (916) 278-7239 (TDD only) or via email at sswd@csus.edu.

Code of Ethics

In the social work profession, it is expected that students will become familiar with and adhere to the NASW Code of Ethics. This code for professional behavior should guide your actions in class and in the field agency setting. Ethical violations (e.g. disrespect toward classmates and the instructor) may result in failure of this course, particularly if the instructor has previously advised a student of the violation(s).

Electronic device

Unless you are expecting important phone calls, please turn off all your electronic devices, including cellular phone, pagers, PDA, and laptop computer. Do not use your laptop to take note in class (PowerPoint slides will be provided). It is the rule of this class that no laptop or PDA be used for any reason during the lecture class time. Students with disabilities that need to use special devices, including laptop/PDA, must be arranged through the Office of Service to Students with Disabilities.

Commit to Integrity

As a student in this course (and at this university) you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class and also integrity in your behavior in and out of the classroom.

Sac State's Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures

Spring 2013 Syllabus

Hybrid Courses: (http://www.csus.edu/atcs/elearning_update.htm)

According to the Sacramento State eLearning policy, a Hybrid Course: is “a course in which 20-67 percent of course activities, including class meetings, are delivered electronically. Through the use of a variety of technologies, actual seat time is reduced and replaced with activities, discussions, and assignments completed at a distance.” In this class we will meet face-to-face on the days scheduled in the syllabus and on the other days when class are scheduled but there is no planned face-to-face meeting students are expected to engage in and complete assignments, readings and all related activities as quizzes and test and participation scores will be based on all the materials to be covered.

Part 2: Course Objectives

At the end of the course students should be able to:

- Discuss how services to children and families are provided along a continuum from the least intrusive (support services), to somewhat more comprehensive ("Supplemental services), to services that substitute, either temporarily or permanently~ for their natural family (substitute services)
- Discuss the history of the provision of services for children and their families in the United States
- Explain the role of the family in the lives of children, how these roles can break down and how they differ according to the influence of diversity
- Demonstrate an understanding of how such social issues as poverty, violence, drug abuse and homelessness impact children and their families and
- explain what each means to children and families
- Give a brief overview of such services as day care, services in schools, counseling, court services, protective services, services to teen parents, foster care, adoption and residential services
Discuss the impact of children's services on those they serve

Speculate knowledgeably on the trends in and future of services to children and families given the current societal attitudes and political climate

Explain the role of the child welfare worker in various types of services for children and families.

Services will also be discussed in the light of their provision to a variety of diverse populations.

You will meet the objectives listed above through a combination of the following activities in this course:

- The primary methods of instruction will be:
- lecture, class discussion, exercises,
- audio and visual aids and class presentations.
- Guest speakers will enhance class material.
- In addition, student comments are welcome and encouraged.
- In class discussions as well as online/web based discussions and interactions. Failure to attend classes regularly and or participate in designated activities will affect your final grade

Students are expected to attend all in class meeting sessions as well as complete all non-face-to-face meetings assigned activities.

Class Assignments:

Test, paper & Quizzes: there will be four scheduled quizzes, a midterm, a paper and a final test. All quizzes and test will be based on the reading, class discussion, guest speakers, video, and any other resource material presented. The primary texts are “Exploring Child Welfare” Social Policy for Children and Families and “Child welfare: Policies and best practice” at the end of each chapter there is a summary and some exploration questions. An effective way to study is to answer the questions upon completion of the chapter.

Web Based Activities:

There are a number of web sites that you are asked to visit (the urls. are available on SacCT as well as in the syllabus) during the course of the semester. You are asked to make comments and discuss the content by date certain. Completion of these activities is crucial for the participation portion of the course. Please ensure that these activities are attended to in a timely manner. There are also two videos and a few news articles that you will be ask to view and read and make comments/answer questions. One video (The Mandated Reporter) is to be viewed and the questions answered before class session 6 on March 7, 2013. The second video entitled place to place is to be viewed and the questions answered by May 9 @ 12 noon.

Part 4: Grading Policy  Graded Course Activities

Visit the Assignments link in SacCT for details about each assignment listed below. Click on Assessments to access quizzes and exams. (See Part 4 for more information about accessing tools and activities).

Class Requirements and Grading:

a. Assignments are to be completed in a timely manner, barring serious unforeseen circumstances. If such circumstances do arise, please notify the instructor as soon as reasonably possible.

b. All written work should be typed. Papers will be double spaced and properly referenced. The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) is the accepted format to use for referencing. Failure to properly reference can be considered plagiarism.

c. Plagiarism can result in automatic dismissal from the course.

d. Midterm and final assignments are each weighed at 20 & 40 % respectively. For both the midterm and the final students will be required to do some writing requiring critical examination of the materials covered over the designated period. Attendance & Participation, mid-term and final account for 80% of the class grade. The final 20% of class grade will come from scheduled quizzes (all quizzes will be based on previous weeks’ reading).

e. Attendance in class as well as participation in web based activities are expected and will be considered for scoring from the section marked attendance and participation. Three or more (3) absences will result in point loss.

Late Work Policy

Be sure to pay close attention to deadlines—there will be no makeup assignments or quizzes, or late work accepted without a serious and compelling reason and instructor approval.

Viewing Grades in SacCT

Points you receive for graded activities will be posted to the SacCT Grade Book. Click on the My Grades link on the left navigation to view your points.

Your instructor will update the online grades each time a grading session has been completed—typically within 3 days following the completion of an activity. You will see a visual indication of new grades posted on your SacCT home page under the link to this course.

Part 5: Course Policies

Attendance & Participation

Students are expected to participate in all online activities as listed on the course calendar. 10 percent (20 points) of the points for this course is from attendance and participation. Since this is a Hybrid course and some sessions will in-class while there are non-face-to-face sessions scheduled. So, the points will be based both on attendance and on participation in and out of class.

Online activities will be tracked, using the SacCT tracking tool, discussions, chat sessions, and group work, to monitor students’ participation in the course.

Complete Assignments

All assignments for this course will be submitted electronically through SacCT unless otherwise instructed. Assignments must be submitted by the given deadline or special permission must be requested from instructor before the due date. Extensions will not be given beyond the next assignment except under extreme circumstances.

All discussion assignments must be completed by the assignment due date and time. Late or missing discussion assignments will affect the student’s grade.

Understand When You May Drop This Course

It is the student’s responsibility to understand when they need to consider disenrolling from a course. Refer to the Sac State Course Schedule for dates and deadlines for registration. After this period, a serious and compelling reason is required to drop from the course. Serious and compelling reasons includes: (1) documented and significant change in work hours, leaving student unable to attend class, or (2) documented and severe physical/mental illness/injury to the student or student’s family.

Inform Your Instructor of Any Accommodations Needed

If you have a documented disability and verification from the Office of Services to Students with Disabilities (SSWD), and wish to discuss academic accommodations, please contact your instructor as soon as possible. It is the student’s responsibility to provide documentation of disability to SSWD and meet with a SSWD counselor to request special accommodation before classes start.

SSWD is located in Lassen Hall 1008 and can be contacted by phone at (916) 278-6955 (Voice) (916) 278-7239 (TDD only) or via email at sswd@csus.edu.
Commit to Integrity: As a student in this course (and at this university) you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class and also integrity in your behavior in and out of the classroom.
