ATTENDANCE - Instructors have the right to administratively remove any student who, during the first two weeks of instruction, fails to attend any two class meetings (for courses that meet two or more times a week), or one class meeting (for courses that meet once a week). It is therefore especially important that students contact instructors in advance regarding absences during the add/drop period. However, do not assume instructors will turn in official drops. It is the responsibility of each student to officially drop any scheduled courses he or she is not attending. Failure to do so will result in penalty grades ("WU" or "F").

The lab and Student Activities Manual component of this class will be STUDENT OUTCOMES: • The focus of this course is to introduce culture and facilitate language acquisition through listening, speaking, comprehending, reading and writing. • You will learn basic phrases to perform communicative tasks (e.g. greeting, listing, identifying, agreeing, disagreeing, especially in the present) and will begin to create/respond in the language in culturally appropriate ways. • Culture includes how to interact with native speakers and introduction to history, geography, politics and literature. • You will develop the ability to think critically by analyzing linguistic structures and reflecting on and evaluating cross--- cultural differences.

COURSE METHODS: In class= face to face and online course • Extensive oral exercises, dialogical inter--- action, group work, partner drills, role--- playing, dictations (dettati), reading and writing exercises from v--- book.

• WEB CT= iLrn Learning Center. Even though we meet face to face for three hours a week the entire course is online, that is, the ebook, the language laboratory including audio, video, listening, comprehension and language games and more. Your class time should REINFORCE what you acquire through the online course.

STUDY METHODS: You must be prepared to put in a minimum of 30 minutes a day for Italian study. An hour is ideal, more than this is outstanding. Language learning includes absorbing countless details little by little. If you do not put in time from the beginning on a REGULAR basis, you will not learn the language. It is impossible to cram or study exclusively before tests. I expect you to try your best! The amount of effort you put in will determine what will get out of a course! If you are looking for a course to fill your schedule, do not take this class. It requires professional commitment.

ITALIAN PEER PRACTITIONERS (tutors): You are required to meet with one of the Italian PP's in 2032 Mariposa Hall if you receive a C or less on any test and to help prepare for oral exams. You are warmly encouraged to take advantage of our tutors for conversation practice, help with grammar and cultural exchanges!

Italian PP's, Mariposa Hall 2032
Hours to be announced

INTERNET ACCESS FOR ONLINE PORTION OF THE COURSE: Students can use any of the IRT managed student computer labs on campus. Visit the University Labs website (<http://www.csus.edu/uccs/labs/generalinfo/about.stm>) for information about locations, hours, and resources available. The Practice Lab in 2002 Mariposa Hall exists solely to support students of foreign languages. Please check hours at the beginning of the semester.

The Student Tech Center

The Student Tech Center (STC), located in AIRC 3007, teaches students to use software needed to complete course assignments, provides group collaboration space and prints posters for free. The STC workshops include Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite, SPSS, multimedia, and more. In the workshops you will learn how to format documents for APA, MLA, etc.; create charts and graphs; manipulate and analyze data; run statistical procedures; design posters; create webpages, and more! The STC Group Lab accommodates student groups up to 8 people. Group tables are equipped with laptops and large monitors which can be shared among multiple laptops. Group tables are available on a first come, first serve basis.

The STC is open Mon-Thu from 10 am to 7 pm and Friday from 10 am to 3pm. Nooner workshops are held at 12 noon, Mon - Fri and Happy Hour workshops are held at 5:30, Mon - Thu. We are located in AIRC

Keep in mind that language is rooted in culture and each language reflects a different culture. Language structures our thought patterns. To learn a new language is also to learn how to think differently.

 Attendance Policy: Regular attendance is essential to succeed in this class. More than THREE unexcused absences WILL affect your final grade. 100 points per absence after 3rd absence. Entering class late (more than five minutes) three times will count as ONE ABSENCE. Make sure that you sign the attendance sheet. Mondays I will check the to see that you have logged in to iLrn Learning Center and done the required work. Skipping the online hour will equal one absence.

GRADING SCALE:

A 100-90 ---> 2000-1900 points

POINT DISTRIBUTION:

15% Regular attendance and participation (common courtesy in class, respect toward classmates and instructor; no disruptive behavior: exiting during class, entering late, eating food during the lesson, texting, listening to music, are considered disruptive to learning environment) 594 points

25% Online student activities manual = WB & LM

254 points for cap.4 + 332 points for cap 5 +220 points for cap 6 =
806 points total

60% Tests and Quizzes oral and written

600 points

Total possible points: 2000

Please note: You will receive a separate grade for online work. If you complete ALL the online exercises assigned and ALL online labs you will receive a PASS. Late work or incomplete online work will result in I or F.

REQUIREMENTS:

1) Students must complete all the online student activities manual SAM and LM. You are expected to repeat activities several times, especially dictations, pronunciation drills, comprehension drills, etc.

2) Tests will be given once every two weeks to three weeks. Quizzes/Tests can be made up only with a valid excuse, doctor's note or emergency. Test dates will always be announced in advance. Plan on 6 tests during the semester. You will be asked to self-correct most tests and quizzes. Use your book for this and learn from your own mistakes.

3) Please be punctual and remain in class during the entire fifty or one hour and fifty minutes. If you are more than three times late this will count as an absence. Leaving class before the end of the hour is disruptive. Please remain attentive during group exercises, you will greatly profit from others' mistakes. Walking in and out of class during group activities is NOT acceptable.

4) You should complete all online activities even though we may not always go over them in class. In class we will work from the e book and selected exercises. Do not hesitate to come and see me if you need help and if you have done work which we have not corrected in class, or which I have not collected.

5) No Cell phones nor iPods use nor any such devices may be switched on during class or during tests! No food. (water, coffee, tea, ARE allowed) Please remember turn off cell phones for entire class period. No iPods nor headsets of any kind, nor computers or any type of electronic devices are allowed during tests.

6) Allow 24 up to 48 hours for replies for e--- mail queries. Expect written work to be corrected within one week, or sooner.

IMPORTANT:

Reasonable Accommodation Policy If you have a disability and require accommodations, you need to provide disability documentation to Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD). For more information please visit the SSWD website (<http://www.csus.edu/sswd/>). They are located in Lassen Hall 1008 and can be contacted by phone at (916) 278-6955 (Voice) (916) 278-7239 (TDD only) or via email at sswd@csus.edu. Please discuss your accommodation needs with me after class or during my office hours.

Students are expected to be familiar with the University's Academic Honesty, Policy & Procedures. The policy on Academic Honesty and other information regarding student conduct can be accessed from the University Policy Manual (<http://www.csus.edu/umannual/index.htm>).

CSUS POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Students are responsible for:

1. Understanding the rules that preserve academic honesty and abiding by them at all times. This includes learning and following particular rules associated with specific classes, exams, and course assignments. Ignorance of these rules is not a defense to a charge of academic dishonesty.

2. Understanding what cheating and plagiarism are and taking steps to avoid them. Students are expected to do this whether working individually or as part of a group.

3. Not taking credit for academic work not their own.

4. Not knowingly encouraging or making possible cheating or plagiarism by others. FOR FURTHER

INFORMATION PLEASE VISIT THE Library's Plagiarism Website
(<http://library.csus.edu/content2.asp?pageID=353>).

IMPORTANT: It is not possible to cover every detail in the book in class. I will emphasize the most important elements but you are responsible for studying the text thoroughly and in depth and for using the online system to the fullest extent to practice your pronunciation, etc. You are expected to come to class prepared and to have already studied the sections we focus on each day.

Once you have carefully read this syllabus, you are free to drop the course if you cannot adhere to these ground rules.

Please also note that we will not always follow the order of the book and we will omit a few details.

Finally: If you attend class on a REGULAR BASIS and do all assigned work, pass the tests, you will NOT fail the class. Please do not hesitate to see me or the tutors if you have domande (questions) difficoltà (problems) or simply wish to chiacchierare (chat) about things Italian. I am especially interested in seeing you progress and firmly believe that you can learn from your mistakes!
