CONTENT ORGANIZATION

Get acquainted with your e-Chapters and SacCT content so you can use them effectively:

1) Locate some of the important reference materials in your books and SacCT and mark them as needed:

- the grammatical explanations are summarized (on green pages) at the end of each chapter (Motifs)
- a list of vocabulary is found at the end of each chapter, (after the green pages)
- Look at the Table des matières and Modules to see how they are organized in e-Motifs.
- clearer verb conjugation charts are available in Parlez-vous Français? Textbook. Verbs are grouped in their categories and are arranged in alphabetical order for easy access.

- look also in the folder Student Notes on SacCT to find course content (PowerPoint presentations) for each chapter.
- a French-English/English-French glossary is found in SacCT and at the end of the book, before the Index

Note:

This syllabus is designed for “beginners”. Beginners are typically learners who have had one or two semesters of high school French. However previous knowledge of French is not required. “False” beginners (learners/students who are familiar with French and as such can move pretty quickly to advanced French levels (FREN 1B, FREN 2A) will be required to take FREN 1B, 2A or FREN 5. Students must drop the class by the drop deadline and register in FREN 1B, or take a challenge Exam with me, within the first month of the semester. The students must accept the letter grade assigned by the instructor based on their challenge Exam performance. The exam copy will not be available to students after it has been graded. FREN 1A/1B Placement test is available from Professor Russell’s SacCT. Students should take the placement test within the first week of class for primarily French 1A & French 1B. The purpose of this test is to assess the student knowledge of French grammar and vocabulary, in order to place the student in the most appropriate level.

Method of Instruction

The course covers Modules 1 to 5.

Active student participation is required. Oral comprehension and practice are essential to become comfortable with all aspects of the language and culture.

Oral participation includes, repeating, readings, games, singing, creating cultural situations and finally one final dialog. Quizzes, exercises, electronic written responses and dialogues build lexical and grammatical skills.

Lab/ Listening activities are an essential part of the course. This course requires a valid Saclink account and has a SacCT component.

FREN 1A is an elementary course, first semester. This course will be taught entirely in French (English explanations of one or two grammatical structures will be given only when clearly needed). Students are expected to attend class regularly.

Homework and Assignments will be posted on SacCT.

As part of your preparation for the next class meeting, you will be assigned some exercises online and/or ones created by your instructor. All Homework are due on Thursdays. Please check the exact dates.

Note: We will not meet in the classroom on days when students have Online Assignments on SacCt. Online Assignments (which replace class periods) must be completed on the due date and they count also for attendance and participation points

Students may be required to go to the lab in MRP 2002 (walk –in lab) or other labs on Campus and complete exercises on SacCT if they don't have a computer at home, or work from home if they do. It will be the student's responsibility to complete the assignments, on time, before the deadline. These SacCT online exercises will be graded. Students can use any of the IRT managed student computer labs on campus. Visit the University Labs website (<http://www.csus.edu/uccs/labs/generalinfo/about.stm>) for information about locations, hours, and resources available.

Compositions: You will write and submit online 3 compositions, the subject of which will relate to topics covered in class. (Sample topics: Portrait d'une célébrité, Mon portrait, Ma chambre et Mes Camarades de Chambre)

All Homework and compositions are due on Thursdays, except for homework and composition due either before Thanksgiving (Fall semester) or Spring Break (Spring semester). Please check the exact dates for others.

Class preparation and participation

During class there will be plenty of opportunities for you to practice what you have learned. I expect you to study assigned materials before you come to class and to be prepared to answer questions. You will be required to work on activities in class in a variety of configurations (individually, with a partner, with a group). When you work with other students, I will observe and evaluate your use of French, your ability to focus on the task and use time effectively, and your cooperativeness. You have the opportunity to earn points (1.5 points per class session) for preparing the day's lesson and participating in class.

You must present a "documented" excuse (i.e. an excused medical absence must be documented from a doctor or the student clinic, on campus) for any absence; otherwise, you will receive a zero. With an excuse, the zero will be replaced with your average daily preparation/participation grade.

10 unexcused absences will immediately incur into a final F in this class.

Extra credit points to make up class attendance /participation

Students in FREN 1A or FREN 1B in Professor Russell's classes may earn up to 15 points by participating in the French club or the French Film Series in the Department of Foreign Languages at CSUS. Film schedules, times and locations will be announced by Professor Russell. Students will watch three (3) French movies (with English Subtitles).. At the end of the movie, students will submit their names either to your professor or to one of the French Club Officers who will be present. The Officer will report their names to me.

Students are required to write short summaries in English of the movies they watched (1 page each). Write at least ten (10) French words they heard in each movie. Students may also watch movies at the Alliance Française de Sacramento. For the Alliance Française de Sacramento schedule, go to <http://www.afdesacramento.org/future.htm#cineclub>. The Ciné Club meets once a month on Fridays at 7pm.

Grading

Students' grade depends on performance on written and oral tests, homework, compositions, and participation in class as well in attendance.

Note: If you are absent from class on an exam day, you will take a make-up test within one week of the scheduled test day at a time that is mutually convenient for you and your instructor. All SacCT assignments will not be reopened unless there are long term documented medical conditions.

Grades will be based on the following grade calculation

300 pts	Homework and SacCt:
150	Online Assignments
90	3 Compositions
100	Oral Exam
60	Preparation and participation (Attendance and active participation)
100	Exam 1: Module 1& Part1 of module 2
100	Exam 2: Part 2 of module 2
100	Exam 3: Module 3
100	Exam 4: Module 4
200	Exam 5 (comprehensive)
1300 pts	TOTAL

The Instructor reserves the right to change anything on this grade calculation

Grading Scale

To calculate your percentage grade, divide your total points by the total possible points, and multiply by 100 .This is your percentage grade.

Example: John earned 1200 out of 1300

$$(1200 :1300) \times 100 = 92.3 \%$$

$$92.3 \% = \mathbf{A-} \text{ (A minus)}$$

Grading Scale %

93% -100% = A	73% -76.9% = C
90% -92.9 = A-	70% -72.9% = C-
87% -89.9% = B+	67% -69.9% = D+
83% -86.9% = B	63% - 66.9% = D
80% -82.9% = B-	60% - 62.9% = D-
77% -79.9% = C+	0-59.9% = F

I reserve the right to raise a final grade if I feel that a student has made substantial progress in a specific area or overall over the course of the semester.
