

SACRAMENTO
STATE

CSUS Geology Department & U.S. Geological Survey Fall 2009 COLLOQUIUM SERIES

TUESDAYS, 4:00 P.M.
MENDOCINO HALL 1015

A brief reception follows the talks in Placer Hall Commons Room (second floor)

September 22

Jim Wanket

CSUS Geography Department

"Northern California paleoecology: reconstructing prehistoric vegetation, fire, and climate using late Quaternary sediment records"

September 29

John Karachewski

Department of Toxic Substances Control

"Geology of the San Francisco Bay Region"

from 2:00-3:30 John will meet with students to discuss career management issues.

October 6

Charlie Alpers

Various Geologists/Hydrologists, USGS California Water Science Center

"USGS Research Opportunities for CSUS students"

November 3

Dennis Leikam & Nancy Barth

Graduate Students, -CSUS Masters Candidates

"Variability of Hydraulic Conductivity in a Complex Aquifer System, California Coast Range, San Joaquin County, California"

and

"Nonstationarity and Trends in the First Two Moments of Peak Stream Flow Data in California"

November 10

Kate Campbell

USGS, Water Resources Discipline, National Research Program, Menlo Park, CA

"Field-scale Bioreduction of Uranium under Natural and Artificially Stimulated Conditions"

November 17

Steve Poletski

Graduate Student, -CSUS Masters Candidate...

"Nomlaki Tuff Eruption – Chemical Correlation of a Widespread Pliocene Stratigraphic Marker"

Other Colloquia

Volcanological Society of Sacramento talks are now part of the Colloquia series:

More VSSAC info at <http://www.csus.edu/geology/vssac/>

Please join us.

Refer any questions to CSUS 916.278.6337 or USGS 916.278.3000