

SACRAMENTO STATE
Housing and Residential Life

Dear Student:

We are glad that you are thinking about living on campus at California State University, Sacramento during the 2009/2010 academic year. Our objective goes beyond providing you with just comfortable accommodations and helpful service. Our goal is to provide an environment that supports your academic achievement and personal growth.

We offer you an opportunity to meet people, make friends, and enjoy a variety of educational, cultural, social, and recreational activities. Many friendships that you will develop will stay with you for years to come. The contact you have with other students from different backgrounds, cultures, ethnic and national origins will serve to broaden your perspective on what life is all about. Living on campus offers distinct advantages in the development of academic goals and successes, as well as in the areas of personal and social development. Best of all, living on campus is fun!

I encourage you to thoroughly read the Housing and Residential Life License Agreement information, as it contains answers to many questions you may have. The License Agreement documents have no specific deadline, although it is important to complete the application process as soon as possible. Priority for receiving a housing assignment is based on space availability, departmental needs and considerations, and date and time application process is completed online or received in the housing office.

We look forward to having you here at California State University, Sacramento.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Cockrill, Director
Housing and Residential Life
