Subject: TSA Program Vendor Web Seminar - Reminder

This is the final tax shelter annuity (403(b) program information session for November. All fund sponsors were asked to provide tax deferred investment education, an overview of the newly restructured program, online enrollment information as well as their own investment program information. All employees interested in a tax shelter annuity, or those who were unable to attend previously scheduled sessions by the other four vendors, can benefit from the education investment information provided by this session.
