
You Are Cordially Invited to the 2007
Western Family Economics Association
Conference

Theme
Family Economics:
Research and Practice for a Sunnier Economic Climate for Families

January 24-27, 2007

The Four Points Sheraton Hotel
Tucson, Arizona

Registration Deadline:

December 29, 2006

(both conference and hotel reservations)

Registration Cost:

Registration for the entire conference is $200

- This includes the Wednesday no-host reception and Thursday and Friday's lunch, as well as morning and afternoon refreshment breaks.
- For students (undergraduate or graduate), the entire conference registration is $100.

Accommodations:

The Four Points Sheraton Hotel

1900 East Speedway Tucson, Arizona 85719

1-800-325-3535

1-520-327-7341

- Individuals must make reservations by December 29, 2006 in order to receive the rate of $99 per room single or double occupancy.
- The rates apply 3 days prior to and 1 day after the dates of the conference on a space available basis.
- Each room includes a large work desk, voice mail, data ports, dual-line telephone, cable television, in-room movies and video games, complimentary newspapers, coffeemaker with complimentary coffee and tea, iron and ironing board, and hairdryer.
- Wheelchair-accessible and non-smoking rooms are available.
- Check-in time is 3:00 p.m. Check-out is at 12:00 noon..

Transportation:

The hotel is located 20 minutes from the Tucson Airport.

- Arizona Stagecoach shuttle service charges $20 per person each way or $34 round trip. Taxi service is approximately $26 each way.

Schedule:

The conference begins Wednesday, January 24, 2007, with registration at 5:00 p.m. and an opening reception at 7:00 p.m., and ends Friday afternoon, January 27, 2007. A tour is being organized for Saturday, to help conference participants understand some of the immigrant issues being faced in Tucson.