NASP Member Benefits

NASP membership offers you the opportunity to improve your skills, advance the profession, and promote quality services for children. As the largest and most influential association for school psychologists, NASP provides resources and leadership to help you succeed.

- Be inspired with new ideas and research and stay current on developments in the field with Communiqué, School Psychology Review, and School Psychology Forum.
- Enhance and protect your professional standing by joining together with fellow members to support efforts to address national and local threats to title, practice, and employment.
- Save time by visiting the online Resource Library for easy-to-access resources to assist you in your work, including articles, podcasts, fact sheets, and much more! You can also download handouts to use with parents and educators.
- Learn from respected experts with online professional development modules, the Summer Conferences, and the Annual Convention, in Chicago, March 2–6, 2010.
- Exchange information, feedback, and support with your colleagues with NASP’s Interest Groups and online Communities.
- Advocate for the school psychology field and your role as a school psychologist, and educate others on how you improve outcomes, with adaptable presentations, handouts, and related materials.
- Take advantage of member-only discounts on professional resources, including convention registration, NCSP renewal, and publications. NASP members also have access to discounted professional liability insurance for both school-based and private practitioners.

Membership Categories

A Regular Member is someone who is trained in school psychology, or certified by the National School Psychology Certification System (NSPCS), or credentialed by a state as a school psychologist, or holds official assignment of 50% or more on a school psychology graduate program faculty.

A Student Member is someone actively enrolled in a school psychology graduate program at least one-half time or a minimum of six semester hours or its equivalent per semester. Student membership is not available to those employed full time in the profession.

An Early Career member is someone who graduated from a school psychology graduate program and is in his or her first two years of practice.

A Retired member is someone holding Regular membership for at least five consecutive years who retires from full time remunerative professional activity but may be consulting or involved in other paid professional activity less than 15 hours a week.

An International member is someone living and working outside the United States or Canada who meets Regular membership requirements or is currently functioning as a school psychologist or equivalent.

A Canadian member is someone living or working in Canada who meets Regular membership requirements or is currently functioning as a school psychologist or equivalent.

A Common Address member is a school psychologist who resides with a Regular member paying full dues. All mailings, except election materials, are only sent to the Regular member. This membership category is not available to those employed at the same address.

An Associate member is someone who does not meet the eligibility requirements of the other membership categories and may include those functioning as a school psychologist without a school psychology credential, consultant, or supervisor of psychological services; faculty at a school psychology graduate program; or allied professionals, or undergraduate or graduate students, with a strong affiliation to school psychology, who support the work of the profession and wish to convey their affiliation and commitment through membership in the Association.

A Student Associate member is someone who meets the eligibility requirements for Associate membership and is actively enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program at least one-half time or a minimum of six semester hours or its equivalent per semester.

A Leave of Absence member is a person who has been an Association member for at least one year and is on a leave of absence from an employer, is laid off, or may be consulting or involved in other paid professional activity less than 15 hours a week, or is receiving no compensation from any employment source. Request for a Leave of Absence membership must be made in writing to the Director of Membership.
