Catalog Description
The second semester of college French (Fren 1b) corresponds to the third and fourth years of high school French. This beginning course further develops the four elementary linguistic skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing). The spoken language and the relationship of the language to French and Francophone civilization and culture are given special attention. We therefore hone students’ ability within a contemporary, cultural context so they can learn the language and some of the many cultural components, which constitute a French way of life: social issues, family, art, music, film, history, geography, and more.

Course Objectives
We develop the four language skills and to familiarize the student with the Francophone world. The course provides instruction and practice toward competency in French oral and written communication. The instructor guides students through each part, gradually giving the students more autonomy to create on their own. The main communicative and grammatical goals are: engage in conversation with others using past, present and future tenses; to talk about food and eating habits, sports and hobbies; to present and describe one's family and friends; and to develop appropriate French language pronunciation, rhythm and articulation. Students will develop skills to understand concepts in written and oral French, as well as the learned ability to write and speak the language on their own. In addition, students will develop valuable electronic communication skills and presentation techniques.

Important Guidelines and Expectations
a) Preparation
Class material is presented in French, and when necessary, in English. Both grammar and conversation are emphasized. In keeping with our views that language proficiency grows through the common courtesies and alliances that have anchored all language speaking communities, we expect students to show mutual respect for one another, participate actively in class, focus on class activities, and demonstrate a desire to learn. In order to participate successfully, students need to study the lesson before coming to class (use the day-by-day study guide we provide).

b) In-Class
We believe in active (not passive) language learning. Therefore, we emphasize using class time to practice as much spoken French as possible. This means not only speaking, but also listening; students should listen carefully to the instructor AND to other students. By listening closely to the French around us we can learn a lot about how to say things and how to interact in another language. Students will often break up into groups to work on written and oral exercises so that you actively learn grammar, vocabulary, and expressions.
c) Outside Class

Consistent practice of all of the skills reinforces and builds our understanding of the language. SO we NEED to practice outside class as well as in class. Language is a DAILY activity therefore we expect you to do 30-60 minutes of French EVERYDAY - do not be afraid to make it enjoyable by supplementing exercises from the text and workbook with enjoyable activities - music, movies, reading a recipe.

Textbook, Written and Oral Homework

Espaces. Rendez-vous avec le monde francophone (third edition) 2015 - Cherie Mitschke & Cheryl Tano, Vista Higher Education. This textbook includes a code to access the Supersite at vhlcentral.com. If you buy a second hand copy of the book make sure it includes the code to the Supersite. As well as the textbook, we use a variety of online materials and written and oral activities created by the professor. You will receive exercises via email or you can download them.

Method

Active student participation in class is required. Oral practice of French is essential to become comfortable with the language and the culture. Part of your grade will depend on your participation in class. Oral participation includes repeating the vocabulary and new expressions as modeled by the instructor, readings, dialogues (with partners and in groups), skits and debates, games, songs, and rehearsals for in class recordings. Students should also collaborate on portions of grammar lessons in group study.

Homework (see Week by Week section of SacCT for your homework schedule)

Outside class, in addition to preparing for each day’s lesson, you are required to complete exercises for each chapter (see day-by-day guide for your homework schedule - this schedule is a minimum, do more exercises for more practice and extra credit).

All work turned in late will be penalized.

GRADING
What you need to get a good grade:
Your overall effort and diligence in doing homework and participating in class will be taken into account
A - a very good, almost error-free understanding and knowledge of vocabulary, grammar, sentence structure, and oral comprehension and proficiency (90-100 %);
B - a good understanding and knowledge of vocabulary grammar, syntax, and good oral skills but errors occur throughout homework and tests (80-89 %);
C - knowledge and ability at this level reflects some understanding and knowledge of most materials presented, but confusion exists in the overall understanding of most concepts presented (70-79%)
D - little understanding and knowledge of vocabulary, grammar, syntax, and oral comprehension and proficiency. (60-69%)
I - students who have to stop coming to classes and turning in work can get an incomplete, but in order to receive this grade they must complete a written contract with the instructor.
U - unofficial drops (equivalent to an F) are given to students who do not attend class or no longer attend class, turn in assignments, or take tests.

Grades will be based on the following points system – the maximum is 1000 points 950 = 95% (A); 900 = 90% (A-); 850 = 85% (B); 800 = 80% (B-) and so on.
100 - 94% = A; 93-90% = A-; 89-87% = B+; 86-84% = B; 83-80% = B-; 79-77% = C+; 76-74% = C; 73-70% = C-; 69 and below = D; 70-79% = C; 60-69% = D; 59% and below = F
