Section 12 - Glossary

1031 Exchange: The exchange, under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, of a real property held for investment or used in a trade or business, for a similar property; it allows the property holders to defer capital gains.

1031 Replacement Property: A property purchased with the proceeds from the sale of another property recently sold by the buyer, so as to qualify the sale and subsequent purchase as a 1031 exchange.

25%: The value (rent, vacancy, et. al.) associated with the building at the 25th percentile of the distribution of building size.

75%: The value (rent, vacancy, et. al.) associated with the building at the 75th percentile of the distribution of building size.

A: See Asset Class.

Absorption/Occupied Stock %: Absorption during the time period divided by occupied stock at the end of the time period.

Absorption: See Net Absorption.

Additional Income: Building revenue resulting from sources other than primary property type rents. Examples include rent revenue from space that is part of the building but is of a different rental type (i.e. ground floor retail in an office building), and income from vending machines, parking garages, billboards/signage, gym and other facilities fees, telephone or ATM access fees, and roof antennas.

Affiliated Parties: A buyer and seller who are related by blood, marriage or corporate structure, such as a parent and sibling or a corporation and its subsidiary.

Anchor Tenant: The store(s) and other users (e.g., movie theatres) that generally occupy the largest spaces in terms of square footage and serve as the primary draw of customers in a shopping center. Typical anchors are supermarkets, drug stores and department stores.

APD: Indicates that the sale price has been apportioned based on the size of each building included in a multiple property transaction. When information on total units is not available, sale price is apportioned based upon the square footage of all buildings included in the transaction.

APX: Indicates that the sale price is approximate.

Arms Length Transaction: A transaction between unrelated parties under no duress.

Asking Rent % Change: Percent change in asking rent from the previous time period.

Asking Rent: For office, retail and industrial properties, the quoted average gross annual rent per square foot, including expenses. For apartment properties, the quoted average gross monthly rent per unit.

Asset Class: An overall indicator of both a property's physical condition and operating performance, where A properties tend to be the best in the market, have above average design, construction and finish, minimal or no deferred maintenance, superior locations, achieve the highest rents, and have tenants of strong credit quality; B properties tend to be in good to above average condition, have adequate construction but do not have design and finish reflective of the latest standards and preferences, have above average locations, are generally well maintained, and command average rents; C properties tend to be in average condition, exhibit some deferred maintenance, provide functional space for tenants, have less desirable locations, are usually managed by small local companies with limited experience, command below average rents, and have tenants of lower credit quality that provide a less stable income stream.

Average Household Income: The average income per household as defined by the US Bureau of the Census.

B/C: See Asset Class.

B: See Asset Class.

Bankruptcy: Indicates that the seller was operating under Chapter 7 or 11 bankruptcy protection at the time of sale.

Building Area: The total area of the building(s) included in the transaction, expressed in square feet. May represent NRA, GBA, or unspecified building area.

Buyer: The person or entity to whom property rights were transferred; the grantee.

Buyer's Broker: An intermediary in the transaction who represented the interests of the buyer.

C: See Asset Class.

Capital Reserve: An allowance that provides for the periodic replacement of building components that wear out more rapidly than the building itself and must be replaced during the building's economic life.

Class: Reis-defined class category. May be A, B or B/C/

Community Shopping Center: A retail property offering a wider range of apparel and general merchandise than a neighborhood center. Discount department stores (e.g., Wal-Mart, Kmart and Target). The gross leaseable area generally runs from 100,000 square feet to 350,000.

Competitive Inventory: The total square footage or total number of units or square footage of completed properties that are competitively rented. Competitive properties are office buildings, industrial properties, regional, community, and neighborhood shopping centers of 10,000 square feet or greater, or rental apartment complexes of 40+ units (in California, REIS includes apartment complexes of 10+ units). Owner-occupied, medical office buildings, cooperatives, condominiums, furnished rental apartments, federally subsidized housing units, and buildings under construction are excluded from the inventory.

Completions: The amount of new space added to market inventory during the time period indicated.

Condominium Building: A multi-unit structure or property in which persons hold fee simple "Title" to individual units and an undivided interest in common areas.

Construction/Absorption: Construction (i.e. Completions) during the time period divided by absorption during the same time period.

Contract Rent Discount (CRD): The average percentage discount offered by building owners/managers from the market asking rent to final negotiated contract rent.

Credit Loss: The total amount of rent due that the landlord is unable to collect due to tenant default.

Cumulative Market Share: The cumulative percentage of anticipated deliveries based on the running total of projects for the listed submarkets.

Data as of: Reis's most recent quarterly update to this peer's record of information.

Deed Reference: A filing number that provides a means of retrieving the deed in the public record. Usually in the form of the book number and page number under which the deed has been filed by the recorder.

Distance from Subject: Distance, in miles, from the peer property to the subject property.

Distance to CBD: Distance, in miles, to the Metro's Central Business District.

Distance to Highway: Distance, in miles, to the closest US Highway.

Distance to Landmark: Distance, in miles, to a Reis-defined landmark such as a geographical point, airport or local attraction.

Effective Gross Revenue: The sum of effective rent revenue and additional income, less free rent concessions and credit loss.

Effective Rent % Change: Percent change in effective rent from the previous time period.

Effective Rent: In office and retail properties, the average market rent, less the present value over the lease term of free rent and, where applicable, the portion of tenant improvement above standard and/or other concessions, including moving allowances and waived fees. In apartment properties, the average market rent, less the present value over the lease term of free rent.

Efficiencies: Apartment units with an efficiency, or studio, configuration (no separate bedrooms).

Enclosed Shopping Center: A center which has a walkway or mall that is enclosed, heated and cooled, insulated and lighted. The mall corridor has storefronts on one or both sides.

EST: Indicates that the sale price is estimated.

Estimated Completion (Month): Month of anticipated or actual completion.

Estimated Completion (Year): Year of anticipated or actual completion.

Estimated Going-in Cap Rate: An overall capitalization rate obtained by dividing the projected net operating income for the first full calendar year of ownership by the purchase price.

Expenses: The average annual cost, per square foot or per unit, of operating buildings in the REIS submarket survey sample, including property taxes, energy, janitorial service, insurance, general building maintenance, management and leasing fees, and other expenses.

Federally Subsidized: An apartment property at which some, or all, of the units are occupied by tenants who participate in Federal programs, such as Section 8.

Financing Details: Information regarding how the purchase was financed. May include lender, loan amount, interest rate and term.
