

American Indian History Symposium
Sacramento State, March 5-6, 2009
Schedule
Thursday, March 5

8:30-8:55 AM	Opening Blessing and Welcoming – Hinde Auditorium, University Union Frank LaPena (Wintu/Nomtipom) – Professor emeritus Sacramento State Annette Reed (Tolowa, Smith River Rancheria) – Director of Native American Studies, Sacramento State Mary Tarango – Chairperson Wilton Miwok Rancheria Christopher Castaneda – Chairperson, Department of History, Sacramento State Otis Scott – Dean, College of Social Science and Interdisciplinary Studies
9:00-10:25 AM	Session I – Native American Historiography Chair: Richard Palone (Cherokee)– Philosophy and Native American Studies Sacramento State Susan Miller (Seminole Nation) – “Native America Writes Back: The Indigenous Paradigm and American Indian History” Myla Vicenti Carpio (Jicarilla Apache) - “More than Story and Narrative: Historical Memory and American Indian History” Clara Sue Kidwell (White Earth Chippewa/Choctaw) - “A Brief History of Choctaw History”
10:30-11:55 AM	Session II – Choctaw History Chair: Shirley Ann Wilson Moore – Professor of History, Sacramento State Jacki Rand (Choctaw) – “Red, White, and Black: A Personal Essay on Interracial Marriage: A Reading” Kenny Brown (Choctaw) – “Plundering the Choctaw: Robert L. Owen as Attorney and Opportunist, 1885-1922” Charles Roberts (Choctaw) – “On Being Choctaw: A Personal Narrative Redux”
12noon-1:25	Lunch – No formal lunch
1:30-2:55 PM	Session III – Native American History: Genocide, Colonization and Transitions Chair: Erika Gasser – Professor of History, Sacramento State Donna Akers (Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma) - "American Genocide: The Great Cover-up of the Destruction of Native America" Edward Valandra (Sicangu Lakota) - "National Co-existence or Colonization: It is a Matter of Choice" Rebecca Bales (Choctaw) - "California: A Gathering Place for American Indians."
3:00-4:25 PM	Session IV – History Department Alumni – California Indian History Chair: Joe Pitti – Professor of History, Sacramento State Tim Wright – “Voluntary Associations: Race, Temperance, and the Murder of the Indian Jose Peña in Lockeford, Ca., 1863” Stella Mancillas – “Race, Sex and Betrayal in the 19th Century California: The Marriage and Divorce of Lucy and John Hlte” Lissa McKee – “Tribal History and Environmental Regulatory Compliance”
4:30-6:00 PM	Reception at Anthropology Museum – Mendocino 1000 Exhibit “Envisioning American Indian Histories: Art, Object, Text” Curator: Terri Castaneda – Professor of Anthropology, Sacramento State
8:00AM-5:00PM	Redwood Room, 1st Floor University Union – Native American Arts/Crafts/Jewelry Lobby Suite – Programs and Information

American Indian History Symposium
Sacramento State, March 5-6, 2009
Schedule
Friday, March 6

8:30-8:55 AM	Welcoming – Hinde Auditorium, University Union  Matt Franklin – Chairperson, Lone Band of Miwok Indians  David Leon – Chairperson, Department of Ethnic Studies, Sacramento State  Alexander Gonzalez – President, Sacramento State
9:00-10:25 AM	Session I – Native American History: Memory and Narrative  Chair: Wayne Maeda – Professor of Ethnic Studies/Asian American Studies, Sacramento State  Amy Lonetree (Ho-Chunk Nation ) – “Framing Native Survivance: Ho-Chunk Family Photographs in the Charles Van Schaick Collection, 1870-1930”  Brenda Child (Ojibwe) - “Memory, Narrative and the Evolution of the Ojibwe Jingle Dress”  Dave Edmunds (Eastern Cherokee) - “Rethinking American History: Building an American Base”
10:30-11:55 AM	Session II – Native American History  Chair: Charles Postel - Professor of History, Sacramento State  Rose Soza War Soldier (Mountain Maidu/Cahuilla/Luiseno) – “In Search of Historic Truth: The American Indian Historical Society”  Terry P. Wilson (Potawatomi) “Significant Others in American History”  Jack Forbes (Powhatan-Renápe-Lenápe)– “How do Native People Fit into the History of North America?”
12noon-1:25	Lunch – No formal lunch
1:30-2:55 PM	Session III – California Indian History  Chair: Al Striplen (Ohlone) – EOP Counselor, Sacramento State  Steven J. Crum (Western Shoshone – Duck Valley) – “California Indian History: A Look to the Past and the Future”  William J. Bauer, Jr. (Wailacki-Concow) - " When Jesus Walked the Sacramento Valley: A Family History from Native California"
3:00-4:25 PM	Session IV –California Indian History/Sovereignty/Contemporary Issues  Chair: Aspen Good (Dakota)- Ethnic Studies/ Native American Studies, Sacramento State  Nikki Myers Lim (Pomo) – “Sovereignty: Historical and Contemporary Challenges for California Tribes”  Joe Giovannetti (Tolowa, Smith River Rancheria) – “The Birth of the California Association of Tribal Governments (CATG): An Early Assessment”  Julia Coates (Cherokee) – “Domestic Expatriates: Manifesting Identity Among Diasporic Cherokees”
5:00-5:35 PM	Maidu Dancers and Traditionalists – Hinde
6:00 – 9:00 PM	Ticketed Banquet
8:00AM-3:00PM	Redwood Room, 1st Floor, University Union – Native American Arts/Crafts/Jewelry  Lobby Suite – Programs and Information