Collaborative Negotiation & Mediation

June 16-20, 2003 • 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. daily • (40 hours)

The College of Health and Human Services and Center for African Peace & Conflict Resolution at California State University, Sacramento present a basic negotiation and mediation workshop, designed for diverse populations from:

- community-based & non-governmental organizations (CBOs/NGOs)
- public & private agencies
- businesses
- human rights groups
- professional & trade unions, and
- educational institutions.

The workshop trains participants on various negotiation and mediation techniques, practice-applications, conflict assessment and problem solving-skills, and how to become conflict mediators. Special emphasis will be on inter-group, interpersonal, commercial, community and public policy disputes, and youth conflict mediation. The workshop is very interactive, with case role-plays, practical exercises, short lectures and case development.

The workshop will be held from 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. daily on the California State University, Sacramento campus.
