

WOMEN'S TRANSPORTATION SEMINAR SACRAMENTO CHAPTER

FREE LUNCH FOR STUDENTS

Advancing Women in Transportation
Sacramento Chapter

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN TRANSPORTATION

Learn how degrees in public policy, environmental studies, government, economics, design, geography, engineering, business, planning, and others can have job in transportation! Listen to panel of professionals with various backgrounds and unique perspectives on the opportunities in the transportation field.

Moderator:

- Karen Wilcox, Director of Finance, Sacramento Area Council of Governments(SACOG)

Panel Speakers:

- Kendra Breiland, Analyst, Legislative Analyst Office
- Karen Wilson, (Retired) Division Manager, Strategic Planning, Sac. Metro. Air Quality Management District (SAQMD)
- Rob Owen, Transportation Planner, Caltrans, Division of Rail
- Kristin Calia, Transportation Engineer, Fehr & Peers Transportation Consultants

WHEN: Tuesday April 24, 2007
11:30 – 1:00

WHERE: University Union,
Forest Suite (2nd Floor)

Limited Seating. Please RSVP to Dave Lopez at Dlopez@markthomas.com or 916.381.9100.

Event photos may be taken of the speaker and attendees for inclusion into the WTS Newsletter.