

Colleges Furlough Plans September 18, 2009

Arts & Letters (per Kate Millsap)

Art: closed

Communication Studies: closed

Design: closed

English: partially open on 9/18 because Elaine Maeda will be in the office

Foreign Languages: closed

History: closed

HRS: closed

Learning Skills: partially open on 9/18

Music: all clerical staff will be gone on 9/18 but some tech staff (Lamar Veasey and Glen Disney) will be here because of concerts that day.

Philosophy: closed

Theatre: closed

Business Administration (per Thomas Matlock)

CBA Office of the Dean

- Friday, September 18, 2009 – The Dean's Office will be officially closed (EMBA Lecture Presentation at the Alumni Center)
- Monday, September 21, 2009 – The Dean's Office has designated this day as a furlough day in lieu of 9/18

The ADF Office will be closed

The ADUP Office will be closed

The UBAC will be closed

Business Student Services will be closed

Education

Furlough dates posted on website:

<http://edweb.csus.edu/calendar/furlough.html>

Engineering & Computer Science (per Denise Anderson)

Open with limited services

Health & Human Services (per Evelyn Novak)

| | | |
|------|--------|-------------------------|
| CJ | closed | |
| KHS | closed | Issue rooms also closed |
| NRS | open | 3 staff present |
| PT | closed | |
| RPTA | closed | |
| SWRK | closed | |
| SPA | closed | |
| DO | closed | |

Natural Sciences & Mathematics

Furlough dates posted on website: <http://www.csus.edu/nsm>

Social Sciences & Interdisciplinary Studies (per Marsha Robinson)

Both the Dean's Office and all of its Departments and Programs will be closed on September 18th, with the exception of the Center for Collaborative Policy (located off campus), the Institute for Social Research (located in the Adams Bldg off campus), and the Institute For Higher Education Leadership & Policy(IHELP – located in Tahoe Hall). These three programs are not subjected to furloughs.