NON-PARTISAN VOTER INFORMATION FORUM

October 30, 2014, 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Sacramento State Alumni Center

Become an educated voter, learn about the propositions appearing on November’s ballot, and listen to a moderated panel discussion.

Free pizza and beverages for the first 100 attendees!
STUDENT PRESENTERS

Kara Corches, MPPA ’17 ♦ Jennifer Krebs, MPPA ’16 ♦ Angela Marin, MPPA ’13 ♦ Mike Sharif ‘15 (Government) ♦ Terra Townsend, MPPA ’15

MODERATOR

Dr. Mary Kirlin ♦ Chair, Department of Public Policy and Administration
Dr. Kirlin earned her doctorate and master’s degrees at the University of Southern California. Prior to joining Sacramento State, Dr. Kirlin taught at the University of Southern California and Indiana University. In addition, she held several local and state government positions including the chief of staff for the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

PANELISTS

Dr. Edward Lascher ♦ Faculty, Department of Public Policy and Administration
Dr. Lascher studied political science at the University of California, Berkeley. His specialty is the policy process, legislative politics, and the impact of institutional structures on policy outcomes. He previously taught at Harvard University and worked for two California state agencies.

James P. Mayer ♦ President and CEO, California Forward
Mr. Mayer is president and CEO of California Forward, a bipartisan public interest effort to bolster democracy and improve the performance of government in California. He previously served as the executive director of the Little Hoover Commission and the New California Network. In addition, Mr. Mayer worked as a senior writer for The Sacramento Bee.

Jennifer S. Pae ♦ Project Manager of Voter Service and Education, League of Women Voters
Ms. Pae is the project manager of voter service and education for the League of Women Voters. Ms. Pae studied at the University of California, San Diego, where she served as the first Asian American woman student body president. After earning her degree, Ms. Pae held numerous civic engagement positions including project director for PowerPAC and chief of staff for 18MillionRising.org.

Kevin Riggs ♦ Senior Vice President, Randle Communications
Mr. Riggs is the senior vice president for Randle Communications, overseeing the firm’s strategic communications, media relations, and business development initiatives. Prior to joining the firm, Riggs worked for Sacramento’s NBC affiliate KCRA-TV, serving as an anchor and political reporter. Recognized as one of California’s top political journalists, Riggs received many accolades during his 40-year career including an Emmy.