

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
SACRAMENTO

Summer 1999
Sociology 168

Dr. Tom Kando
by appointment
Office: AMD 451C
Phone: 278-6694/278-6522
e-mail: kandotom@csus.edu

Required Books

John Hewitt--Self and Society - 1997 edition.

Annual Editions--Social Psychology, Dushkin/McGraw Hill 1999/2000

D. Karp and W. Yoels -- Sociology in Everyday Life

The course requirements include three papers and a debate. Each paper counts for 20% of your grade. The debate counts for 25%. The papers fulfill the G.E. advanced study requirement. Further instructions for the papers and the debate will be handed out shortly.

The last 15% of your grade is for quality of class participation and attendance. This means that you will be rewarded for intelligent and active participation in class discussion.

The format includes lectures, movies, experiments, debates, discussions and literature review sessions.

COURSE OUTLINE READINGS

1. Introduction: What is social psychology? Karp and Yoels
2. Perspectives in Social Psychology Sociology in Everyday Life
3. Symbolic Interactionism
4. Self and Society

1ST PAPER DUE: Monday, July 7

5. Communication Annual Editions
6. Social Problems and Social Issues
7. Social Structure and Institutions

2ND PAPER DUE: Monday, July 21

8. Pragmatism J. Charon
9. Deviance Symbolic Interactionism
10. Values and Morality
11. Change

3RD PAPER DUE: Friday, July 28