Mexican consul general coming to Sac State

Carlos Gonzalez Gutierrez, consul general of Mexico, will be the first in a series of breakfast speakers this year at Sacramento State’s Alumni Center, from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 4.

Gutierrez was appointed by Mexican President Felipe Calderon and was confirmed by the Senate to act as consul general of Mexico in Sacramento, with jurisdiction over 24 counties in northeastern California.

The consul general has a bachelor’s degree in foreign relations from El Colegio de Mexico and a master’s degree in foreign relations from the University of Southern California. He has been a member of the Mexican Foreign Service since 1987 and has held several posts in Mexico and abroad.

For more information and to RSVP, visit www.sacstatealumni.com or call 278-6295. For media assistance, contact Sacramento State’s Public Affairs Office at (916) 278-6156.

— Alan Miller
amiller@csus.edu

Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.