Feb. 29, 2012

Conflict resolution and mediation workshop

The 17th annual Conflict Resolution Training Workshop will take place June 18-22, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m., on the Sacramento State campus. Registrants will be notified of the specific location and other details.

This workshop is designed to develop negotiation and mediation skills that will enable participants to manage conflict constructively. Certified mediators have the skills and confidence to help others resolve their disputes effectively.

The interactive workshop combines lecture, videos, role-playing and simulation exercises, and is facilitated by highly experienced mediators who share the theory and methods behind collaborative, interest-based bargaining.

Trainers:

- Ernest Uwazie, director of the Center for African Peace and Conflict Resolution, and professor of Criminal Justice at Sacramento State, a conflict resolution trainer and practitioner.
- Daniel Yamshon, an attorney and highly experienced dispute resolution trainer, practitioner and theorist at both the domestic and international levels.

Registration fee: $645, which includes the course manual and materials, plus two lunches. Check or MasterCard/Visa payments accepted. Make checks payable to: University Enterprises/CAPCR. Refund of payment with penalty before May 1. No refunds after May 1. There is a 10 percent discount for groups of four or more.

Housing/hotel/parking information provided upon request and registration. Inquiry: Ernest Uwazie, (916) 278-6282, uwazieee@csus.edu.

To register, print out and complete the form at this link.

For media assistance, contact Sacramento State’s Public Affairs office at (916) 278-6156.

– Alan Miller
amiller@csus.edu

Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.

###

34-S11-AM