Center for California Studies
to conduct town hall, simulated election

Sacramento State’s Center for California Studies will present a LegiSchool Town Hall Meeting and Mock Election from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1. The Town Hall Meeting is from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and the Mock Election from 2:30 to 3. Both events will take place at the Secretary of State’s office, 1500 11th St., first-floor auditorium.

California students and a panel of experts will discuss the upcoming presidential election and issues on the November state ballot. They will answer the following questions: What issues are important in this election? What issues most impact California? Who would you prefer as president?

The LegiSchool Project is a civic education collaboration between Sacramento State and the state legislature, administered by the Center for California Studies.

For media assistance, contact Sacramento State’s Public Affairs Office at (916) 278-6156.

– Alan Miller
amiller@csus.edu

Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.

###
59-F12-AM