Oct. 15, 2013

Sac State Choirs get ethereal for concert

“Music for All Souls” will be performed by Sacramento State’s Choirs when they open their fall concert season at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 2, at Sacred Heart Church, 39th and J streets.

Under the leadership of conductor Donald Kendrick, the Sac State Chamber Choir, Concert Choir and University Chorus will present a program that features a performance of “Requiem” by Gabriel Fauré with organist Ryan Enright, and conductors Tim Mascarinas and Lyndsay Barham. Fauré’s ethereal masterpiece is one of the most popular choral works from the late 19th century.

The University Chorus also will perform works by Eric Whitacre, J.S. Bach and René Clausen, and the Chamber Choir will include music by Edwin Fissinger and Moses Hogan.

Suggested donations are $10 general, $7 for seniors and $5 for students. Advance tickets are recommended and can be purchased at the University Ticket Office, (916) 278-4323, www.csus.edu/hornettickets.

For more information, visit www.csus.edu/music or call (916) 278-5191. For media assistance, call Sacramento State’s Public Affairs office at (916) 278-6156. – Craig Koscho

Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.

42-F13-CK