Jan. 7, 2014

Former Treasury official is guest speaker for Sacramento Business Review

Former Assistant Treasury Secretary Neel Kashkari will be the keynote speaker at the release of the Fall 2014 Sacramento Business Review at noon Tuesday, Jan. 21, in Sacramento State’s University Union Ballroom.

The event will include an overview of forecasts for business sectors throughout the region, followed by a question-and-answer session at 1 p.m. and Kashkari’s address at 1:10 p.m. Tickets are $45 per person or $350 for a table of eight. Lunch will be served.

To make a reservation, visit www.cba.csus.edu.

Kashkari joined the Treasury as a senior adviser under President George W. Bush in 2006. When the financial crisis erupted, he was confirmed as assistant secretary of the Treasury and helped to write the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act.

He remained at the Treasury after President Barack Obama took office, returning to California in 2009 to become managing director and head of Global Equities at PIMCO, which helps public employees meet their retirement goals. He recently left PIMCO to pursue other opportunities in public service.

Sacramento Business Review is a biannual publication produced in a partnership between Sacramento State and the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Society of Sacramento to provide a comprehensive assessment of sectors in the regional economy.

For media assistance, call Sacramento State’s Public Affairs office at (916) 278-6156. – Craig Koscho
Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.

###

102-F13-CK