Sacramento State

2014 Schedule of Activities

Friday, November 14
1:30pm-3:30pm  Phi Beta Delta – International Scholar Reception
Library Gallery
  • A reception for Sacramento State’s visiting international scholars, hosted by Phi Beta Delta. Come meet our visiting scholars and their faculty hosts. Refreshments served

Saturday, November 15
9am-4:30pm  4th Annual Asian Studies Program Symposium (Asian Globalization: Memory, Colonialism. And Hello Kitty)
Mariposa Hall 1000
  • Hosted by Center for Pacific Asian Studies

Monday, November 17
10am-2pm  Opening Ceremony, Culture Fair
Redwood Room, University Union
  • Join Sacramento State’s international and multicultural community in the kick-off of International Education Week, hosted by International Programs and Global Engagement. Discover how accessible international education is, learn about different cultures and countries through student cultural clubs and community organizations, and find out how you can create your own international studies experience. A viewing of the Secretary of State announcing International Education Week 2014 will begin at 10am, followed by opening statements from Sacramento State leaders. Light refreshments served.

12pm-1:15pm  The Noble Eight-Fold Path in Buddhism: May All Beings Be Happy
Mendocino 1024
  • As part of the HRS 140 course, Dr. Maria Jaoudi opens her classroom lecture to the campus.
Tuesday, November 18
10am-2pm  Language Learning Day
Redwood Room, University Union
- Engage with language and culture experts and learn to speak phrases in different languages in just minutes! Learn phrases in Mandarin, Arabic, American Sign Language, Farsi, French, German, Hmong, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Navajo, Polish, Punjabi, Spanish, Taiwanese and Thai. The more phrases you learn, the more prizes you win! In between languages, stop by international opportunity tables to learn about the various ways to go international before graduating from Sacramento State. This event is hosted by the Department of Foreign Languages and led by Dr. Kazue Masuyama.

Wednesday, November 19
9:00am-9:50am  Asian Costumes and New Year Celebrations
Mariposa 1000
- Dr. Pat Chirapravati (Vice Director of Asian Studies, professor of Art) presents a group of students who will be modeling traditional Asian Costumes and discuss New Year celebration in different Asian Countries including China, Japan, Korea, Thailand, Cambodia, Laos (mainly Hmong), India, Pakistan, and Iran.

6pm-8pm  (Registration starts at 5:45pm)  Launching a Global Career: A Panel Discussion
Location: Redwood Room, University Union
- In today’s globalized world, an increasing number of jobs cross international borders. Whether working in politics, development, business, or any number of other sectors, certain questions arise when thinking about an international career. Get the answers from this panel of international professionals, covering a variety of career fields. Hosted by the World Affairs Council of Sacramento and International Programs and Global Engagement. Refreshments served.
Thursday, November 20
10am-2pm Faculty Lecture Showcase
Redwood Room, University Union

- 10am-11am Lynn Tashiro will be speaking about her research experience in Japan after being awarded a Fulbright Scholarship.

- 11am-12pm Visiting international scholars from all over the world come to Sacramento State to research, learn and exchange knowledge. Scholars will share with the Sacramento State community a variety of topics, including their research, their home country and culture, and what it is like to live in the United States.

- 12pm-1pm Two of Sacramento States professors and film makers screen their latest film, “Cambodia’s Other Lost City: French Colonial Phnom Penh, followed by Q&A with Dr. Michael Vann & Professor Dym. Cities are the most important sites of interaction in world history. This 29 minute documentary examines how French rule shaped Phnom Penh from the late 19th century to the 1930s. Host Michael G. Vann, Sacramento State University professor and former President of the French Colonial Historical Society, analyzes the relationship between architecture and imperial rule

- 1pm-2pm Janet Hecsh, professor in the College of Education and Administrator in Charge of the University Library, speaks on her experience of teaching teachers in Cambodia.

Friday, November 21
Throughout the Day in the Library: Library Presents...

- An international book collection will be on display with other materials about international education on the ground floor in the University Library.

- 10am A tea gathering in the Nakatani Tea Room.

10am-11am Study Abroad Information Workshop
Location: Brighton Hall 209

- Janis Silvers, Study Abroad Coordinator in International Programs and Global Engagement, tells students how they can study abroad through Sacramento State programs while earning resident units and paying Sacramento State fees.