

1

Identity theft is?

- a. When your personal information is stolen, such as your driver's license.
- b. When someone uses your credit card without your permission.
- c. When someone opens an account in your name.
- d. When you receive a credit application with another person's name.

Home

- 2 Which precautions should you take to protect your identity?
- a. Shield your pin number when using an ATM.
 - b. Shred documents with your personal information before disposing.
 - c. Check your credit reports for false information at least once a year.
 - d. All of the above.

Home

3 What is a critical step to take if you become a victim of identity theft?

- a. Obtain a current credit report and file a fraud alert with credit bureaus.
- b. Close accounts that have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.
- c. File a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission.
- d. All of the above.

Home

4 If requested, credit bureaus will place a 'fraud alert' for what period of time?

- a. 90-180 days
- b. 60-90 days
- c. 30-60 days
- d. 15-30 days

Home