Fall 2012 Undergraduate Admission Appeal Application

Applicants to Sacramento State who do not meet academic admission requirements and/or missed an undergraduate admissions deadline may request further consideration by submitting information which demonstrates their potential for academic success at the University. For a small percentage of prospective freshman and transfer students, their academic eligibility may be weighed alongside other criteria such as: first generation college status, socioeconomic factors, an indication of overcoming educational hardship, skills or talents that align with or contribute to University programs or enrich the educational experience of the campus community.

In order to be considered, ineligible applicants are required to complete and return this appeal application to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions along with all items listed on the checklist. Completed applications will be accepted within 15 days of the notice of ineligibility, all applications received after that date will not be evaluated.
