PARENT(S) VERIFICATION OF RECEIPT OF SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP) BENEFITS

Regulations require our office to verify whether someone listed in your parent’s household has received the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2013 or 2014. SNAP may be known by other names in some states. For assistance in determining, the name used in a specific state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (800-433-3243).

The members of your household include:
- Each of the legal parents in the household
- The student even if the student does not live with you
- Other children that receive more than half of their support from July 1, 2015, through June 30, 2016, or if they would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a financial aid application for 2015-2016. Include children who meet either of these standards even if they do not live in the household
- Other people if they now live in the household, and they receive more than half of their support and will continue to do so through June 30, 2016

Note: If we have reason to believe the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2013 or 2014.

☐ Check the box if there was a reporting error on your financial aid application, and there were no SNAP benefits received in 2013 or 2014. Be sure to sign the form below.
