SOC 120 - ETHNIC & RACE RELATIONS

INSTRUCTOR: D. Tumminia

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Stress the social psychology and social history of race and ethnic relations in the United States. Discussions include: ingroup and outgroup behavior, white privilege, genocide, gender, class, and ethnic identity. Other topics include Anti-Semitism, lynching, genocide, Civil Rights Movement, and the American Indian Movement.

TEXT AND READINGS: Kimmel & Messner, Men’s Lives
Adelman, Racism in the Lives of Women
Another text to be chosen
Hacker, Pocket Style Manual

METHOD OF EVALUATION: One mid-term, one final. One journal in two parts (due midterm and last week of class) includes summaries of readings. Participation in group discussions. Attendance.