Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps

Commander's Message

Are you ready to answer your Nation's call? Air Force ROTC Detachment 088 at California State University - Sacramento is home to a college program whose mission is to prepare young men and women to become the future leaders of our Nation's Air Force. With opportunities for college scholarships and numerous career fields to choose from after you complete your degree, the Air Force is a great way to blaze your path. Whether you're aiming to be a Pilot, Cyberspace Operations Officer, Intelligence Officer or any of our other numerous career fields, we have a job that will challenge and reward you. Many college students are looking to be part of something that is larger than themselves. At Detachment 088, we'll provide that opportunity while developing your leadership skills and emphasizing our core values of integrity, service, and excellence. Join us today and become an American Airman!

Cadet Wing Commander's Message

To become a leader serving in the world's greatest Air Force - you have to start somewhere - and Det 088 could be just the place for you! As the Cadet Wing Commander, my mission is to provide all cadets the opportunity to learn and grow as both followers and leaders by instilling a sense of discipline, purpose, and mission. To accomplish this, we hold ourselves to higher standards in our academic pursuits, physical fitness, and overall character quality. At Det 088, you will find strong camaraderie, support, and cooperation as you build your leadership from the ground up. Det 088 has a reputation of producing some of the finest Air Force officers and we are continuously finding new ways to grow as a team to better lead Airmen in the future. Come prepared to learn with an open mind to get the most out of your training experience. Det 088: Built to Serve!

- Cadet Wing Commander of AFROTC Det 088
