

SSgt CODY JAMES FURIA

SSgt Furia enlisted in the United States Air Force on 21 November 2011 and began Basic Military Training at Joint Base San Antonio, Texas. Following graduation, he attended technical training at Port Hueneme, California, where he trained as a Vehicle and Equipment Maintenance specialist.

Upon completion of technical training, he was assigned to RAF Lakenheath, United Kingdom, serving as a Vehicle and Equipment Maintenance Apprentice. During this time, he gained foundational experience in supporting mission generation operations through vehicular maintenance.

SSgt Furia then reported to Minot Air Force Base, North Dakota, where he served as a Mission Generation Vehicular Equipment Maintenance Technician, directly supporting operational readiness in a high-tempo environment. During his time at Minot, he deployed twice to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar. Following this, he completed a short tour at Osan Air Base, Republic of Korea, as a Mission Generation Vehicular Maintenance Journeyman.

Subsequently, he was stationed at Edwards Air Force Base, California, serving as a Mission Generation Vehicular Equipment Maintenance Journeyman. In this role, he continued to hone technical expertise and leadership in support of test and evaluation missions. Furthermore, he deployed two more times from Edwards AFB, once to Holloman AFB in support of the Afghan Refugee support and once more to Al Dhafra Air Base, UAE.

Currently, SSgt Furia serves as an Officer Accessions Instructor at Detachment 088, Air Force ROTC, Sacramento State University, where he mentors and develops future leaders of the United States Air Force.
