Justification for course proposal:

This course is being modified to fit the new program requirements (please see appropriate form B); a significant portfolio project that becomes part of the student's e-portfolio is being added to the course and the number of units changed accordingly (4-unit course). Minor editorial changes have been made to the course description.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

Focuses on the poetry of T.S. Eliot, one of the dominating figures of English and American literature for a substantial part of the twentieth century. In 1948 he received the Nobel Prize for Literature, and by 1950 his authority had reached a level that seemed comparable in English writing to that of figures like Johnson and Coleridge. Offers students the opportunity to analyze and discuss Eliot's poems. We will trace his poetic/aesthetic development from his early poems ("Prufrock" et al.)
